INTRODUCTION

In 1917 a Committee was appointed with Samuel P. Hagerman as chairman for collecting the Hurff Family data.

At each succeeding meeting a report of the Genealogical Committee was read and much data collected and filed.

In 1933 with George B. Hurff, President of the Association and Samuel P. Hagerman, secretary, the publication of a history and family tree of the Society was authorized when and if in the judgment of the Committee it was proper to do so. A Subscription list was signed by a number of those in attendance.

The work continued with various members of the different families making themselves responsible for genealogical information. The President and Secretary continued to procure and arrange all possible historical facts. There were always errors and corrections.

In 1948 after a lapse of twenty-five years it was suggested we get out a bulletin which could be a fore-runner of the authorized book, if well received. This was done with three members of the Executive Committee serving as a Publication Committee; Samuel P. Hagerman the former chairman now being President of the Association.

This committee having as a background the collection of data compiled by the first group set to work to bring the genealogy up to date (1950) and to add to the history as new information was to be had.

There may still be errors unknown to the compilers, they are generally found in a work of this kind.

The average reader can have very little idea of the difficulties encountered in the preparation of a work of this character.

We the Committee offer the work such as it is, with its defects and limitations and trust that it may meet with the approval of the family.

CHAPTER I.

It has been asserted that "He who careth not whence he came, careth little whither he goeth". We have read many interesting and fascinating historical facts and legends, based on the Valley of the Rhine in Germany, with their overlords or barons, their castles, and their army of retainers united for mutual protections or for conquest of neighboring territories. These have been narrated in prose and poetry, and are the source of the Nibelungenlied, derived partly from actual historical facts, with a large intermixture involving mythological gods, immortalized in many of the themes of the Grand Operas by the great composer, Richard Wagner. There is no known claim that the Harff ancestors are descended from any of the gods of mythology; however, there are two established facts which indicate conclusively that the Harff family, by which name it was originally known, flourished for many centuries and became leaders in their community, no doubt participating in many of the conflicts in which some of these stories may have originated.

The first of the facts is that Arnold, Knight von Harff, who was born about 1471, travelled in many foreign countries, and then published a record of the same, in a work, entitled, "The Pilgrimage of Arnold von Harff, Knight, from Cologne through Italy, Syria, Egypt, Arabia, Ethiopia, Nubia, Palestine, Turkey, France and Spain, which pilgrimage he accomplished in the years 1496 to 1499".

The book is remarkable in that it was made when travelling was almost limited to trade, or for wars of conquest or discovery. It is noted that Christopher Columbus was one of his contemporary travellers. This was a book of travel for its own sake, and was often quoted by authors and referred to by prospective traders wanting to know something about an additional country in which to trade. Its publication evidences the fact that Arnold must have been not only a man of financial means, but of advanced education to travel and to become a successful author.

We find that the art of printing was only in its infancy at this time, and are not surprised to learn that his travels were published in manuscript, of which ten copies are known. Some of them in the Harff Castle, one in Dusseldorf, and one in Dreiborn, probably kept in their museums or local libraries. They contain about 150 pages of small folio. The book was written in a dialect of the Lower Rhine and has been printed in book form once in 1860, and once in 1890 in the German language. It has also been translated into the Italian language, and finally in 1943 by Malcolm Letts, F.S.A. London, into English.

(Note: The English Edition with additional facts in the introduction and notes, may be seen in the Philadelphia Public Library.)

Arnold was a son of Adam von Harff, a nobleman of considerable wealth and position at the Court of the Dukes of Julich and Gelders, whose ancestral seat was at Harff, on the Erft river, near Cologne. A journey such as this could only have been undertaken by a man of fortune, and indeed the family seems to have been richly endowed. On his return von Harff's possessions were increased by purchase and inheritance.

An uncle left to him the castle of Nieshoven, close to Lovenich and other estates fell to him on his father's death. In 1504 he married Margareth von dem Rougert. He died in 1505, and was buried in the church yard at Lovenich near Aschen, in a tomb adorned with 32 coats of arms. His widow bore him a posthumous daughter who died in infancy and was buried in the same grave. Evidently, since he left no issue, the American families do not come from his branch of the family. However, he evidently was a brother, or uncle, or perhaps cousin, to the progenitor of Johann Balthaser Harff, from whom the American branch is descended. This sketch of Arnold is given, however, for the purpose of showing the social and financial standing of the contemporaries and family of Harff in its Homeland.

Next established historical fact, is the existence of the Harff Castle, or "Schloss Harff", as it was locally named.

It probably takes its name from some feudal leader or baron who must have had, according to the custom, an army of dependents or retainers. The fact that he rated a castle, possessed it, and handed it down to his heirs, indicates that he had power, wealth and ambition, which had elevated him to be among the nobility of that day. It is situated in a mountainous section on the Erft River, a tributary of the Rhine, in the province of Rhineland, Westphalia. The nearest town or village being Bedburg, and is southwest of Dusseldorf, northwest of Cologne, and not far from Dreiborn. It is about half the distance between the Rhine River and the Belgium frontier.

Our information as to the Castle Harff has been largely derived from correspondence in 1928 between George B. Hurff, President of the Hurff Association, and Count Theodor Mirbach, who of recent years resided in the castle and apparently was the owner. Under date of August 4th 1928, he writes,

"Acknowledging receipt of your letter dated July 21,-928, I am sorry to tell you, that my family is in no way connected with the v. Harff, the place having come into possession of the Mirbach family through the marriage of Barbara V. Harff, with an ancestor of mine. There is a branch of the family v. Harff, since 1650 at Dreiborn, still existing. The present head of the family is a certain Clemens Freiherr (Baron) v. Harff (born 1903), who lives in Dreiborn near Gmunden (Rheinland). He may be able to give you further details.

"Our archives here contain a great number of manuscripts and documents concerning the Family v. Harff, the oldest dated 27. v. 1346 — so one about Johann v. Harff Chevalier of the Teuton Order (1543). Besides a most interesting book has been published about Arnold v. Harff, who undertook a journey through Italy, Egypt, the Holy Land, Turkey, Spain, and France during the years 1496-1499 and left an illustrated diary of his travels. These are all the details, I can give you at present, I hope, I may have given you some hints, as to the ways and means of obtaining further information. I enclose a photo of Harff Castle, as I suppose, it might interest you.

I remain, dear sir,
Yours truly,
C. Theodor Mirbach."

Harff, Regierungsbezirk, Koln,
Rhein provinz August 4, 1928.
And the second letter:

Harff, Rheinland
21/11/28

"Esteemed Sir:

Clemens Freiherr lives rather far off and I did not meet him, as yet, but I wrote and gave him your orders. I have not got a real copy of the coat-of-arms of the family but I send you a brief sketch I took here in the house, where the arms is to find at a lot of places.

Very sincerely yours,
c. Theodor Mirbach."

On an accompanying slip of paper with the "Castle Harff" was the following notation: "The oldest part of the Castle Harff was built in 1302. The upper part and principle buildings in 1348. Repairs were made in 1694. And a new part of the Castle erected by my Grand Uncle in 1840 and lastly renovations made by my uncle in 1887."

Although the Castle Harff survived for over 600 years, it apparently was damaged during World War II. The following is from an article, in part, which appeared in the New York Times under date of Sunday, February 4th, 1945, being a feature item starting on the first page:

"Americans Storm Medieval Castle.
Wade Through Moats to Win German Position in Push into Siegfried Line.

By Harold Denny.

By Wirless to the New York Times.

With the American First Army, February 3rd.

Troops of our Ninth Infantry Division, waded icy waters of medieval moats today, into a fourteenth century castle to trap a German garrison, trying to block their progress through the Siegfried line. This turreted old pile stands on a bluff 700 feet high just east of Dreiborn, seven and a half miles East of Monschau, and it dominates a highway, running Northeast from Dreiborn. . . It was the scene of one of today's few sharp battles. But the battle at the Castle, was stiff and it was not the first time these old halls had resounded the sounds of conflict. Long ago the castle belonged to counts and in 1463 it was stormed by the Count of Blankenburg. It has been the property of the family of Freiher von Harff, for the past 350 years.

"Today the Germans fighting in it were shouting "Kamerad" to American demands for surrender. By noon, 50 prisoners, had been taken from it, and it was expected that the remainder of its defenders believed to number about 300, would be captives or dead by night. The Castle is so picturesquely medieval that it reminded one of the Viennese operas, and made one expect any moment to see a chorus trip out brandishing steins and singing of love. But what came out were only rifle and machine gun bullets, and vicious little mortar shells . . . Soon after the advance on the Castle began. This, too, was silent except for German fire. Our troops were so close to their objective, that they dare not use artillery. Our men, splashed through a chilly slush that filled the moats and, with covering rifle fire, began working their way in, clearing passages with grenades. The process was proceeding satisfactorily late this afternoon."

In-as-much as the Castle Harff again figured in another war, it was upholding the traditions of its early days, in a more modern trend. Just how badly the interior or exterior of this grand old building was damaged, we have as yet been unable to learn. Formerly this castle was of such importance as to be noted as a worthwhile place of interest to tourists in general. It is mentioned in the famous set of travel books, known as the Baedeker Guides, which for many years have been the standard guides for travellers in Europe. In its edition (1926) entitled "The Rhine from the Dutch to the Alsatian Frontier", there appears the following: "Harff is a picturesque castle, with an eight story keep. The library contains the oldest extant manuscript (1295) of the 'Sachsenspiegel', the most important medieval German law book."

Although we have not been able to visit Castle Harff, to check up on the various manuscripts and genealogical data, which was formerly said to have been there, we feel that we have every reason to believe that the Johann Balthaser Harff, who became the ancestor of the present Hurff Family and his American descendants, was directly related to Baron Harff, and his immediate family, who was formerly lord of the Castle and its feudal retainers.

CHAPTER II.

OUR ANCESTORS LEAVE THE HOMELAND, AND JOURNEY INTO THE FABULOUS UNKNOWN.

Pennsylvania German migration and its part in the settlement and development of America form an epic tale of faith and zeal, of sacrifice and achievement. In Pennsylvania alone were lists made of passengers arriving, although uncounted thousands came to the East and South.

The founding of the province of Pennsylvania by William Penn was the direct result of his active participation—beginning as we have learned in 1675—in the management of the affairs of the New Jersey settlements. Penn in the meantime began energetically the exploitation of his new province giving chief attention to the preparation of ‘Some Account of the Province of Pennsylvania’. This was the first of his series of immigration pamphlets in the interest of his projects. Two such editions appeared, one in Dutch at Rotterdam, and the other in German at Amsterdam. The pamphlets in its respective forms was widely circulated among those most likely to respond to it, especially in those communities and countries where Penn had traveled or was known, notably in England, Ireland, Wales, Holland and Germany, and it had considerable influence in inducing immigration.

In 1517 Luther (1483-1547) had nailed his Theses to the church door in Wittenberg, thereby starting the Reformation, which spread in time through all Europe. Not far from Harff Castle is the famous religious center and Cathedral of Cologne, under the auspices of the Roman Catholic Church. It is a fair assumption that Johann Balthaser Harff, and his family, who later will be shown to have been Protestants, may have been unhappy in their religious life. Or it may have been that they did not like the obligations of the feudal system, with its duties of fighting in support of the Baron von Harff among the neighboring feudal barons, with their ambition to conquer and enlarge their holdings. It has been stated that religious intolerance had made life in sections of Western Europe hopeless for thousands; in the German Palatinate particularly. Penn visited Germany twice and invited the oppressed religionist to settle in his new Province of Pennsylvania.

No doubt the love of greater religious freedom, the freedom from being obliged to engage in so many local wars, and the love of civil liberty, appealed to the Harff family as it did to so many others.

Beginning with the Germantown settlement in 1693, until the dawn of the 18th century, a large scale immigration followed, which spread through Pennsylvania, into the South and the new West, influencing every phase of American life.

First among these immigrants was the learned Pastorius, who settled Germantown with a group of his countrymen. When he verified to his brethren in Europe the truth of Penn's promises, they emigrated by hundreds. Penn was a fluent German conversationalist, which greatly forwarded his intercourse with the Palatines. He easily won them in his plan. When the first of this emigration began it took two routes to Holland.

Immigration was in its infancy. It was necessary for the emigrant to leave his home on the Rhine in May to reach Philadelphia in early October. The journey to Pennsylvania fell naturally into three parts. The first part and by no means the easiest, was the journey down the Rhine to Rotterdam, or some other port, which often lasted six weeks. He carried what household necessities he needed and had to pass through 36 custom houses which had been established by the petty German Princes at will along the river. Gottlieb Mittleberger, in 'Journey to Pennsylvania in the 1750's', writes: "This journey lasts from the beginning of May to the end of October, fully half a year, amid such hardships as no one is able to describe adequately with their misery. The cause is because the Rhine boats from Heibronn to Holland have to pass by 26 customs houses, at all of which the ships are examined, which is done when it suits the convenience of the custom-house officials. In the meantime the ships with the people are detained long, so that the passengers have to spend much money."

Once in Rotterdam, he was often compelled to remain there six weeks while the ship took on cargo. "Because things were very dear there, the poor people have to spend all they have during that time."

The second stage of the Journey was from Rotterdam to one of the English Ports. Most of the ships called at Cowes, on the Isle of Wight, and some at Gosport near Plymouth. Another harbor in Holland, which was frequently used was Amsterdam. They were received kindly in both countries. Mittleberger writes: "When the ships weighed their anchor, the real misery begins with the long voyage. For from there the ships, unless they have good wind, must often sail eight, nine, ten to twelve weeks before they reach Philadelphia. But even with the best wind the voyage lasts seven weeks."

The third stage of the Journey, or the ocean voyage proper was marked by much suffering and hardship. The passengers being "packed densely like herrings", as Mittleberger describes it, "without proper food and water, were soon subject to all sorts of diseases, such as dysentery, scurvy, typhoid and small-pox. Children were the first to be attacked and died in large numbers. The terrors of disease brought about to a large extent by poor food and lack of good drinking water, were much aggravated by frequent storms through which the ships had to pass. "The misery reaches the climax when a gale rages for two or three nights and days, so that everyone believes that the ships will go to the bottom with all human beings on board. In such a visitation the people cry and pray most piteously. When in such a gale the sea rages and surges, so that the waves rise often like mountains one above the other, and tumble over the ship, and one fears to go down with the ship. When the ship is constantly tossed from side to side by the storm and waves, so that no one can walk, sit or lie, and the closely packed people in the berths are thereby tumbled over each other, both the sick and the well—it will be readily understood that many of these people, none of whom had been prepared for hardships, suffer so terribly from them that they do not survive.”

A vivid account of the arrival of these passenger ships in the harbor of Philadelphia is given by the Rev. Henry M. Muhlenberg in 1769, namely:

“After much delay one ship after another arrives in the harbor of Philadelphia, when the rough and severe winter is before the door. One or more merchants receive the lists of the freights and agreements which the emigrants have signed with their own hands in Holland, together with the bills for their travel down the Rhine, and the advance of the money lenders for provisions, which they received on the ship on account. Formerly the freight for a single person, was thirty-six thalers, or six pounds sterling. Before the ship is allowed to cast anchor at the harbor front, the passengers are all examined as to whether any contagious disease exists among them. Then the new arrivals are taken to the State House and there they must render the oath of allegiance to the King of Great Britain. After that they are brought back to the ship. Those who have money are released. — The ship becomes the market place. The buyers make their choice among the arrivals and bargain with them to the merchant, pay their passage and their other debts and receive from the government authorities a written document, which makes the emigrant their property for a definite time.”

Without a doubt our ancestor and his family, who came from one of the Rhine provinces, suffered more or less many of the above hardships.

When the pioneers arrived, the government of Pennsylvania was in the hands of British subjects. In 1737 a law was passed requiring all continental immigrants to take oaths of abjuration to former country and of fidelity to the proprietors and the laws of the province. The original lists, with the pioneers' signatures, are still in existence. They are now in the custody of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in its Archives at Harrisburg, and these lists form the basis of the genealogical antecedents of the hundreds of thousands of Americans, who have descended from the first arrivals. Interest in the study of Pennsylvania German pioneers is most marked. About three hundred family associations, tracing their ancestry to those pioneers, meet annually in Pennsylvania.

We are indebted for much of the detail in this section to a publication entitled "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Ralph B. Strassburger, President of the Pennsylvania German Society. It is dated 1934, in three volumes, which is said to have cost upwards of $30,000, for research, editing, printing, etc. The research, as set forth therein, notes certain errors and deficiencies as contained in prior works. For instance, there is a total of 324 ships, five more than in Rupp's "Thirty Thousand Names", and two more than in Vol. XVII of the Second Series of the Pennsylvania Archives. The lists show that the largest number carried on any ship was 550, but that the average number was 308. The ratio of passengers to signers was approximately 15 to 2. The ship "Friendship" is listed six times.

The 324 ships were commanded by 193 captains. Of those 146 made the trip to Philadelphia but once, but 47 made frequent trips. Some of these captains were reputed to be cruel and inhuman masters. Governor Gordon refers in one of his letters to the "Horrible barbarity with which the passengers were treated" by one captain, while the passengers themselves called him, "a wicked murderer of souls"—but other captains were known as kind and considerate.

Christopher Shultze, who came on the ship "Saint Andrew", landing at Philadelphia, Sept. 14, 1734, wrote of Captain John Steadman: "We have a very good captain who kept strictly to his contract, and very good able sailors, who had very much patience with us."

The first recognition of our ancestor, is when the names appear on two lists as passengers on the Ship Friendship. In the Captain's list they have been listed as "Baltzar Harf", and "Johannes Harf" respectively.

In the original book of record in the Department of State of Pennsylvania, there is still to be seen the signatures made by Johan Balthaser and Johannes Harff on the twenty first day of October, 1754; it is evident they are the signatures of persons of some intelligence, as they are not only legibly inscribed, but would stand as an example of fairly good penmanship. Most of the arrivals by the same vessel, being unable to write made their marks. The names are preceded by the following entry:

"At the State House at Philadelphia, Monday, the 21st Day of October, 1754.

Present: The Worshipful Charles Willing, Esquire, Mayor.

The Foreigners whose names are underwritten, imported in the Ship Friendship, Capt. Charles Ross, from Amsterdam, but the last from Gosport, did this day take the usual Qualifications to the Government. 7 Roman Catholicks. Qual. No. 117 Souls. Whole Freights, 301. From Franconia & Hesse.

Doctors Certificate of the Ship Friendship

15th 8 hr 1754.

If the journey from the Rhine had taken six months, as was often the case, evidently they found further delay, when they arrived at Philadelphia, for the Doctor's examination was made on the 15th and they were not sworn in until October 21st, 1754, indicating a delay of about a week, before they could be released. From the records, the place for signing the oaths was at the State House on Chestnut Street, in Philadelphia. The records show 324 ships arriving between 1727 and 1775 at Philadelphia, with mostly German passengers, estimated to number 65,040 souls.

The 117 persons who qualified means that there were that many males of the age of 16 years and upwards; women and children including males under 16 years were merely listed as "freights" of which altogether there were 301 aboard when the ship arrived. Some captains counted minor children as half freights. It is therefore impossible to tell accurately the actual number of souls who survived the voyage, nor any data as to how many were lost coming over.

Just how many of the Harff family made the journey on the Friendship to Philadelphia with Johann Balthaser Harff would be hard at this date to say. Evidently Catharina, his wife; Johannes Harff a son over 16 years of age on arrival; Ursula, Conrad and Catharina, and most probably one or two other children.

CHAPTER III.

It would indeed be interesting to know how our ancestors were impressed by their first glimpse of America, and what their inmost thoughts were as the ship wended its way up the placid Delaware River, tree lined and tranquil. To all it may have been a blessed privilege to see land and trees once again after that long ocean voyage, and to know that they had at last reached their destination safely.

At that early day Philadelphia was still in its early stages of development. The city must have looked very crude and unprepossessing to this travel weary group who had left a land of beauty and substantial brick and stone houses. On the other hand knowing that they were coming to a new country they may have been amazed that there were so many permanent dwellings already established. King Street (now Water) was then close to the river's edge.

Was there anyone to meet and greet the Harff's on their arrival? Were they expected? At least they were not alone on arrival for their fellow passengers were now all on a common footing, and no doubt they were happy to step once more on firm ground and walk on earth instead of a closely packed ship's deck.

The arrival of a ship in those days was an important event. The people flocked to the river side to scan the newcomers for recognition of former countrymen, and also for the latest news from the home land.

After taking their oath of Allegiance and signing the register, the record states "they returned to the ship—and those who had paid their fare and with no incumberances were released."

We have found no record to indicate that Johann Balthaser Harff, the father, or Johannes Harff the son, had been 'bound out'. We think it would be safe to say that they found shelter for a time with other German families who had preceded them and had already made homes here in Philadelphia.

Had the family known that 200 years later many of their posterity would have been interested in their arrival and experience in the new country, they would probably have kept a journal. It is not to be supposed that the newly arrived Germans remained in Quakerish Philadelphia, when just a short distance away was a settlement that was entirely of their own countrymen. Pastorius the friend of the Germans, and who had been of the German Palatine, had died 1719, but he left a sturdy German community and a firmly established German Lutheran Church.

It does not seem likely that our ancestor with his family settled in Germantown from the fact that by 1759 we find their names listed in St. Micheals German Lutheran Church, (5th Street above Arch St., built 1743) Philadelphia.

On July 22, 1759 Balthaser Harff and Catharina his wife, act as sponsors at the baptism of Catharina Rob, the daughter of Johannes Rob and Catharina his wife, born April 20, 1759. Johannes Robb may have been one and the same that signed the register with Johann Balthaser Harff in 1754, and also came on the Friendship.

On October 14, 1759 from the First German Reformed Church records (p. 75) we find Johannes Harf and Morgan Leopold acting as sponsors at the baptism of Johannes Seibold, son of Johannes and wife Elizabeth. This Johannes Harf was probably the son, for the records mostly give the fathers' name as Joh: Balthaser Harf or just Balthaser Harff.

Then by 1760 Johannes is united in marriage at St. Micheals Church to Anna Maria Nagel, and the witnesses who signed were Joh: Balth: Harff, Johannes Seybold (who had signed the register taking the Oath in 1754) Andr: Theus and Math: Simmerman. (These later two have been found to have located in Gloucester County where their descendants remain to the present time.)

By July 1760 we find the family in a new location. It would seem that Johann Balthaser Harff most certainly came to America possessed of some means, for on July 23, 1760 we learn that he purchased a farm in Deptford Township, Old Gloucester County, West New Jersey, of 122½ acres. That he purchased a farm leads one to believe that he had been a farmer in the old country. However that may be, it seems improbable that he could have made and saved the sum of £50 which he gave for the farm and also provided for his family in a new country for the six years since their arrival.

How he came to locate in New Jersey could be one of several reasons—he may have been looking for a place to settle—other German families may have located in Gloucester County and attended St. Michelas Church and told of the wonderful fertility of the soil. He may have heard of an advertisement of a place for sale—or friends may have interceded for him, or he might have been living in the neighborhood. However it was, we find him purchasing of David Roe a plantation.

From the original deed and survey dated July 23, 1760, now in the custody of the Hurff Family Association, it is noted that this deed was never recorded in any office. It was found in a secret drawer of an old desk which is an heirloom in the family. It is written on parchment, and some of the old established corners as appear on the survey, are apparently still the corners of the present owners.

The Deed recites:

From this deed we learn that he is called of Deptford Township, Gloucester County, giving evidence that he was then residing there. Johann Balthaser Harff not only gets settled on his New Jersey plantation, but in January 1769 he journeys to Burlington and takes out Naturalization papers—for we find on the records:

Acts X George III A.D.1769, William Franklin, Esquire, Governor, Chapter DXIX "An Act to Naturalize, enabling divers Inhabitants of the Province of New Jersey to hold lands and invest them with Priveleges of natural born subjects of said Province."

The 10th signer in partly German and English script is Johann Balthaser Harff. Thus Balthaser Hurff becomes an English subject. But why does he become naturalized in 1769 when he took the Oath of Allegiance in 1754? Simply so he could have the rights and priveleges of other land owners.

By 1774 America began to chafe under the English rule, and uprisings of the American Revolution begin. Johann Balthaser Hurff is encompassed by preparation for war, and finds that he must take a stand for or against this 'new country'. He was then a man of about 74 years of age, and it is doubtful that he would be required to serve in the Continental Army. Whether he took the Oath of Allegiance to the American cause we have not been able to discover. It is almost fair to assume that he did, with Richard Chceseman and Jonathan Williams both Captains in the American forces, and close neighbors, with all young men joining the army he may well have aided them, but we find no record. We know that the farm was not confiscated nor that the family were Loyalists. They could not have been with so many close Whig neighbors.

By April 4, 1784 Johann Baltus Hurff is deceased. In the files of the Prerogative Court, in the Office of the Secretary of State, Trenton, in Book of Wills, No. 26 Page 45, is found the following entry:

Conrad Hurff, Administrator of Baltus Hurff

Inv. L 7; 12:6

Letters of Administration was granted by his Excellency, William Livingston, Esq. unto Conrad Hurff, Administrator of the Estate of Baltus Hurff, late of the County of Gloucester, deceased, he being first duly sworn well and truly to administer the same. Exhibit a true and perfect Inventory and render a just and true Account when thereunto lawfully required of his Administration.

Given under the Prerogative Seal, the 24th, day of April, anno domonini 1784.

Bowes Reed, Reg.

In File No. 1404 H is found the bond which is signed by Conrad Hurff, as Principal, and John Hedger as surety "both of Gloucester County" are held and firmly bound unto His Excellency William Livingston, in the sum of Three Hundred Pounds Proclamation Money"

When Johann Balthaser Harff, later called Baltus Hurff, deceased he was then past eighty years of age and had lived a good thirty years in America with twenty four of them in Gloucester County, New Jersey, on the Homestead farm, which he had purchased, and where he most probably was interred.

Of Catharina, the wife of Johann Balthaser, we learn that she lived to be near the century mark. It was stated in an affidavit of 1798 that she was "aged at least ninety-six years", that she became hard of hearing and blind, that up almost to ninety-six years of age, that she worked as a farm hand, cultivating corn and etc., and that she made her home with her son Conrad up to the time of her death on the old homestead at Turner-ville.

John Baltus Hurff also lived with Conrad before his death, and worked on the farm with him, until six years before his death.

Catharina stated in her affidavit that for a great many years before his death, that John Baltus Hurff was unable to support himself, and that Conrad, his son, had to take care of him, and that at times her said husband had not his senses perfectly and at other times he had”.

The last date we have for Catharina Hurff was 1798.

By that time Conrad Hurff had purchased a burial lot at St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church and it would seem probable that his mother had been buried in this Burial Plot and that the father had been reinterred in the same spot.

CHAPTER IV.

2. Johannes Harff.

Johannes Harff may probably have been the oldest son of Johann Balthaser and Catharina, born in Germany between 1734 and 1738, for when he arrived in America he was "upwards of 16 years of age" and required to take the oath of allegiance for he with his father signed the register in German script.

Nothing is known concerning him from 1754 to 1760. It is doubtful that he came to the New Jersey farm with the family.

We find in the records of St. Micheals Church, Phila., where he was married on February 20, 1760, to Anna Maria Nagel. The witnesses to this ceremony were "Joh. Balth. Harff, Johannes Seybold, Andr: Theus, Math: Simmerman. (P. 175)

On October 11, 1760 of the same year on the Church register we find "Catharina Harff, daughter of Johannes and wife Maria, baptised, the Sponsor was Catharina Harffin, as prox. for Margaretha Albertin, born 10-4/5-1760". This most evidently places Catharina Harff as a sister of Johannes, from the fact that it is written 'Harffin' meaning single.

By 1763 Johannes Harff and his family had emigrated to Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania, with other German families from Philadelphia and vicinity. Here in Reading we find them members of the Trinity Lutheran Church. On the register of the church at Easter and Christmas we find the names of Johannes and Anna Maria as communicants. Throughout the register the name is spelled 'Harff' and not 'Hurff' as the New Jersey family spell it.

Their second child "Johannes Harff was born February 16, 1763 and died there August 2, 1764 from internal spasms, age one year 5 months and seventeen days."

The first child born in Philadelphia must have died for we find under date of 1765 "Catharina Harff, baptised June 9, 1765, daughter of Johannes and wife Maria, sponsors Micheal Fitchthorn and wife Margaretha, child born 5/20/1765."

"Baptised 11/8/1767 Magdalena Harff, parents Johannes and Maria, sponsors, Thomas Straup and wife Magdalena, child born 9/25/1767."

"Baptised 5/13/1770 Micheal Harff, parents Johannes and Maria, sponsors, Micheal Fitchthorn and Catharina, child born 4-6-1770."

Baptised 4/11/1773 Maria Dorothea Harff, parents Johannes and Maria, sponsors Philip Nagel and wife — child born 2/2/1772.”

Baptised 1/4/1776 George Harff, parents Johan and Maria, sponsors—George Deibel and Catharina, child born 12/24/1775.”

“Baptised 5/15/1780 Maria Harff, parents Johannes and Maria, sponsors the parents, child born 3/7/1780.” This would suggest that Maria Dorothea had died, or it was to have been named Anna Maria for the mother.

In the same records we find a double wedding on April 19, 1789. Catharina Harffin was married to Christopher Geiger, and Magdalena Harffin was married to George Henry Schneider.

Micheal Harff called in the records ‘Johann’s oldest son’ was married May 19, 1795 to Barbara, daughter of Baltzer (no last name given) “in presence of George Harff (first).”

“George Harff, Johann’s second son married April 3, 1796 Sara, youngest daughter of Rudolph Koller, in presence of the stepfather and the real mother.”

That is all of the marriages for the children of Johannes and Maria as given in this Trinity Church register at Reading, Pa.

In 1767 the names of John Harff appeared on the tax lists of Reading. By 1768 he is listed as a ‘laborer’ with ‘one house, one lot, one cattle.’

In 1771 he is listed as a ‘weaver’ and taxed for one cattle.

During the Revolutionary War Johannes Harff was an American patriot. He was a private in Captain Charles Gobbin’s Company, Colonel John Heister’s Regiment, Berks County Militia. (See Penna. Archives 5th Series Vol. V. p. 237.)

In 1781 he is again taxed as a weaver for only 9s 2d, and in 1784 the tax list was more in the nature of a census and he appears as “John Harff, weaver, 8 persons in family.”

This same year he was a witness to the will of George Deibel, and by 1785 he was only taxed 3s.

From the Trinity Lutheran Church register, Reading, Pa., we find that the children who had married have their children baptised. And from this source we glean the following:

“Catharina and Christopher Geiger, a shoemaker, had a son Johannes Geiger, born 6/16/1792 baptised 6/18/1792, the sponsors were the grand parents, Johannes Harff and wife Maria.”

To Micheal Harff and Barbara were born:

1. Maria Harff born 9/3/1795 baptised 9/13/1795 sponsors Johannes Harff and wife Maria.
2. Elisabeth Harff, born 8/6/1800 baptised 8/31/1800 sponsors Philip Kelinger and Elisabeth.

3. Sarah Harff, born 2/22/1805 baptised 3/24/1805 sponsor Catharina Geiger.

To George and Sara Harff were born:

1. Johann Harff born 2/11/1797 baptised 4/16/1797 sponsors Johann Koller and Elisabeth Maderiessen.
2. Lydia Harff, born 10/13/1807 baptised 12/26/1807 sponsors Christian and Catharina Geiger.
3. George Harff born 6/15/1810 baptised 7/22/1810 sponsors George Strocker and Hester Mauver.

During the War of 1812 George Harff was a private and his record of service is found in the Penna. Archives, 6th Series, Vol. VIII, p. 1173 George Harf date of app. 1st Sept. 1814 discharged at York 65 miles, Robeson, Berks Co.

Thus ends all that we know concerning Johannes Harff's family. The church records do not show when Johannes or his wife Marie died or where they were buried. In one part of the register the pastor had written a short genealogy of his parishioners telling where they were born from where they came to Reading and when they died. But no entry was found for Johannes Harff. After they acted as sponsors for the grandchild Maria Harff in 1795 their names do not appear in the register, and nothing further is known.

CHAPTER V.

3. Ursula Harff

When Ursula Harff was born or when she died, we have no record. Our first information concerning her is the notice of her acting as sponsor with her father at the baptism on "11/30/1766 of Orsula Harf, daughter of Conrad and Anna, at St. Micheal's Church, Philadelphia.

In Book R. of Licenses of Marriage in the Office of the Secretary of State at Trenton, N. J. is found the Bond, "We David Roe, of the County of Gloster, and Province of New Jersey, yeoman, and Joseph Tatum of the same place, Innholder, are held and do stand justly indebted unto his Excellency William Franklin, Esq., Governor in chief of New Jersey, in the sum of Five Hundred Pounds of current lawful Money of New Jersey."

"That Whereas the above bounded David Roe hath obtained license of Marriage for himself of the one party and for Ursula Hurff, of the same place, spinster, of the other party; Now if it shall hereafter appear that the said David Roe and Ursula Hurff have any lawful let or impediment, or Pre-contract, affinity, or Consanguinity to hinder their being joined in the holy bonds of Matrimony and afterwards their living together as man and wife, then this obligation to be void, or else to stand and remain in full force and virtue.

In Presence of
Elizabeth Mickle
John Ladd

Da. Roe (SEAL)
Joseph Tatum (SEAL)

The above was dated July 24th 1767.

This was the second marriage for David Roe, as his first wife he married Sept. 6, 1738, Elizabeth Taber.

This is the same David Roe who was grantor of the 122½ acres of land "to John Boltus Horfe" under date of 24th July 1760 of which he had purchased of Walter Griffith 14 Jan. 1757 and recorded in Surveyor General's Office at Burlington, N. J. Liber M. folio 59 & 60.

Under date of July 4, 1772 we find another deed between "David Roe of the Township of Deptford and County of Gloucester & Province of West Jersey, Yeoman and Ozillah, his wife, of the one part & John Sommers of the township, County & Province aforesaid, cordwainer, of the other, conveying 112 acres of land and swamp on Timber Creek."

Ursula Hurff Roe thus appears to have had several spellings of her name Ursula, Orcella, Orsula, Oscella, Ozillah, Azella and Osella, or others have so spelled it for her for she signed only by mark.

On February 14, 1783 David Roe made a will, as of Deptford Township, Gloucester County, yeoman, it was probated August 21, 1784. He left to his wife Osella a house and 20 acres of land where he lived, and after her death, "to the heirs of my body, but, if she leave no heirs then it was to go to Osella Hurff, daughter of Conrad Hurff." "To John Hurff a watch." Grandson, John Brown, L50. Granddaughter, Elizabeth Brown, L50. To Joseph Williams my apparel. Residue to John Hedger, he paying 20 shillings every year to the Presbyterian Meeting at Woodbury Creek; also 10 shillings to any minister at the Longacoming Meeting House. Executors-wife, Osella, and my relation, John Hedger. Witnesses-John Sears, Joseph Folkins, Jonathan Williams. Proved Aug. 21, 1784.

1784, Aug. 19. Inventory, L139: 7: 11, made by Isaac Tomlison and Samuel Wild. Lib. 26, p. 5.

By 1792 Oscella Hurff Roe had married a second time to one Isaac Bedelion. Whether he had any means or whether he married her for her money leaves one something to speculate over, for from 1792 on we find a number of litigations over the distribution of the Estate of Johan Balthaser Hurff, her father, of which Ursula Bedelion claims a one fifth share.

We find that suit in ejectment, for the purpose of ascertaining title to the lands of late Baltus Hurff was filed in the Supreme Court of New Jersey, as of May Term 1792, entitled "John Doe, on the demise of Isaac Bedelion and Oscella, his wife, vs Richard Fen, Conrad Hurff being the tenant in possession. The Narr in Ejectment was filed September Term 1792, and served on Conrad Hurff, August 28th, 1792. The matter appears to have rested about five years, for it is not until March 24th, 1797, that Isaac Bedelion files an affidavit that Catharine Hurff, widow, is a material witness, etc. no doubt he realized her great age, she being about 95 years old, and feared that she might die before her testimony could be taken.

On May 17, 1797 a second Narr was filed, on April 18th, 1797 a Venire facias in ejectment was issued returnable, the second Tuesday of May. Further on May 9th 1797 a Distringas Juratores in Ejectment took place.

In Book C. of Deeds page 372 in the Gloucester County Clerk's Office at Woodbury, New Jersey, is found this deed dated June 26, 1797. Isaac Bedelion of the Township of Gloucester in the County of Gloucester, yeoman and wife Osella to Thomas Taber.

By order of the Judges

28 April 1798 (L.S.) : A true Copy

: from the original F. Davenport, Register.

The second proceedings were in the Gloucester County Orphans Court, where Conrad Hurff, administrator of the Estate of his father John Baltus Hurff, deceased, filed either an Account, or a Petition setting forth that the personal property was insufficient to pay the debts of the Estate, and asking for an order to sell the real estate which constituted of the said farm of about 122 acres, known as the Turnerville Homestead.

In an unrecorded deed, in the custody of the family, we find that by deed dated April 30th, 1798, Conrad Hurff, Administrator, etc. conveyed to one Thomas Taber, the said premises, which deed recites:

“WHEREAS Baltus Hurff sometimes called John Baltice Hurff, died intestate seized of a certain tract of land in Deptford aforesaid, and Conrad Hurff, his son was duly authorized by letter of administration to settle and pay off the debts of the said Baltice Hurff, but the moveable property being insufficient, and a statement thereof made to the Orphans Court of Gloucester County, the said Court did on the 24th day of March, 1798, authorize and empower Conrad Hurff, administrator, to sell the land late Baltice Hurff’s or so much thereof as might be sufficient to pay his debts pursuant to which order, Conrad Hurff duly advertised the said land for sale on the said premises, and at the time and place having regularly exposed the said land to sale by public outcry, and Thomas Taber then and there bidding 399 pounds, 13 shillings and one penny, and no person appearing to bid any more, the said land was publicly cried off according to law to the said Thomas Taber, etc.”

This deed was witnessed by John Sparks, and Richard Cheesman, and was acknowledged before the said John Sparks, one of the Judges for the Court for the holding of Pleas, in and for the County of Gloucester, on May 19th 1798.

A further deed, also in the custody of a member of the family and not recorded, dated May 3rd 1798, Thomas Taber, and Margaret, his wife, convey the said 122 acres to the said Conrad Hurff, for the same consideration, namely 399 pounds 13 shillings, and 1 penny.

This deed was also witnessed by John Sparks and Richard Cheesman, and then on May 19th 1798 acknowledged before Judge John Sparks.

And this Deponent saith, that he this Deponent after the last March Term in the said Court and before the present day, to wit, on or about the twenty sixth day of April last past received the first Information of the Account of the said Conrad Hurf, Administrator of the said Baltus Hurf, on settlement of the Estate late of the said Baltus Hurf, in the said Court; and that he this Deponent did not hear nor received any Notice or Information whatsoever from any person whomsoever by Advertisement or otherwise of the said Account of the said Conrad Hurf, Administrator as aforesaid, in any respect whatsoever, either that the said Account would be settled and passed or that the said Account had been settled and passed, in the said Court. GLOUCESTER, ORPHANS' COURT.

Isaac Bedelion and Osella	:
his wife, Exceptants,	:	On Account of the Estate of against	:	said Baltus Hurf, deceased
Conrad Hurf, Administrator	:
of Baltus Hurf, deceased,	:
Accountant.	:

Isaac Bedelion and Osella his wife which Osella is daughter of Johannes Hurff commonly called Baltus Hurf, who died intestate came before the Orphan's Court in the County of Gloucester and except against the Account of Conrad Hurff Administrator of the said Baltus Hurff which Conrad Hurff is son of the said Baltus Hurff and which Account is as allowed by the Surrogate of this County on the ninth day of October last and confirmed by the said Orphans' Court at last March Term. The Exceptants also except against an order made on the application of the said Administrator by the said Court at last March Term for the sale of so much of the Real Estate of the Intestate as may be sufficient to pay the debt of the Intestate mentioned in the said Account.

EXCEPTIONS.

1st. These Exceptants say that the Account on the Debt-side of the said Account hath charged himself only in the L7:12:7 whereas he ought to have charged himself to the value of five hundred pounds for the personal estate of Intestate, to wit:- For all the household furniture of the Intestate, for all the stock and swine, sheep, horned cattle, horses, and other creatures of the Intestate; for all the farming utensils of the Intestate: and for divers other goods and chattles, of the Intestate, and they do charge the same to the same value against him.

2nd. The Exceptants object against the Fourth and Fifth Items on the Credit-side of the said Account and say that the vouchers do not prove in fact the said Credits craved in those Items if proved in fact are not allowable in Law to the Accountant against the Exceptants for the sale of the said Real estate in an Orphans' Court.

3rd. The Exceptants object against the Items for the maintenance of the said Baltus Hurf and of Catharine Hurf and they say that the said Administrator did not in fact make the said Maintenance for the said Baltus Hurf and Catherine Hurf but that the said Baltus Hurf and Catherine Hurf were maintained without the expense of the said Administrator, and that if the said Administrator did make in fact the said maintenance, yet the said maintenance does not raise in Law any debt for the Account against the Exceptants for the sale of the said Real Estate in an Orphans' Court.

4th. The Exceptants object against the fifth item of L30 and against the said maintenance of L360. and say, that the statute of Limitations of six years carreth the Accountant from the allowance of the same to him against the Exceptants for the sale of the Real Estate in an Orphans' Court.

5th. The Exceptants say that an Orphans' Court neither by the Act of Legislature of the State of New Jersey for an Orphans Court nor by any other of the said State have Jurisdiction to allow the said item of L30 and the said maintenance of L360. to the Accountant against the exceptants for the sale of the said Real Estate in an Orphans' Court, because the demand of the L30 and the said L360 is a direct and immediate demand in Action between Berkes and is not matter of Account because the said demand is not contained in the Act for an Orphans' Court, because the said demand if any the Accountant hath, which the exceptants do absolutely deny in cognizable either in an Inferior Court of Common Pleas or in Supreme Court at Law or in a Court of Chancery in Equity and because there are other lawful reasons against the said demand.

6th. The Exceptants say that before the render of the said Account and before the date of the said Order for the Sale of the said Real Estate they had and still have an Judgment Girtment pending in the Supreme Court of Judicature of the said State in right of the said Osella against the said Conrad Hurff for the one equal fifth undivided part of the Real Estate, therefore it was unlawful, while the said Girtment is as and is pending for the said Administrator to apply for the said order of sale and for the said Orphans' Court to make the said Order of sale.

WHEREFORE the Exceptants pray the said Orphans' Court that the said Account of the said Accountant and the said order for the sale of the Real Estate for the Exceptions and reasons aforesaid and for other exceptions and reasons good and valid in the law may be set aside, made void and hold for more against the Exceptants and against the Estate, real and personal of the said Baltus Hurf.

On June 23rd, 1798 the affidavit of Isaac Bedelion, on behalf of himself and Osella, his wife was filed, and also Exceptions, to the account specifying among other things that they objected to the allowance of items of 30 pounds and 360 pounds for maintenance of John Baltus Hurff, and Catharine, his wife, that they had nor received notice, that the suit in ejectment was pending and undetermined in the Supreme Court, etc., there appear reference to 17 Exhibits, but only Exhibits Nos. 2, 3, 10, 11, and 17 have been found in the files, both the petition and the account are missing. These exceptions, and the affidavits both for and against the account, are of such interest, that they are hereby quoted together with the Exceptions, and the Notice substantially in full, hereinafter. John Lawrence, Esq. was counsel for Conrad Hurff, the administrator, and Samuel Leake, Esq. and C. D. Woodruff, appear as counsel for the Exceptants, Isaac Bedelion and Osella, his wife.

The third Court in which the litigation found its way was by application to the Supreme Court of New Jersey, for a Writ of Certiorari, directed to the Orphans' Court of Gloucester County, the effect of which was to bring into the appeal court, all the proceedings in order to ascertain whether the form of proceedings had been lawful.

The writ was sealed the 27th day of April, 1798, and was acknowledged by Judge John Sparks, on April 28th 1798, and a return was made on the same by him.

It is difficult to ascertain just how this matter was disposed of unless it may be that the writ was premature as there was no proceedings filed by Isaac Bedelion and his wife, until June 23rd, 1798. Anyway, from the dates of the sale of land, the deeds, etc., it is evident that this writ of certiorari failed entirely of its purpose.

We are greatly indebted to Daniel W. Beckley, Esquire, of Woodbury, for most of the foregoing data on the insight of the Hurff Family.

Little more remains to be told of Isaac Bedelion and Ursula Hurff.

On Feb. 12, 1799 James Cheesman ward of Thomas Cheesman, deceased made a choice of Isaac Bedelion as Guardian and John Walling was fellowbondsman.

Nothing more seems available on Ursula Bedelion. But on June 1, 1812 we found a record where Abraham Bedelion sells to Isaac Bedelion a piece of ground of about 20 acres which by sale had come from William T. Smith in 1803 to Benjamin B. Cooper and on 11 Feb. 1804 to Turner Riden and on Nov. 13, 1808 sold to Abraham Bedelion. No deed of transfer from Isaac Bedelion nor any will is found for Isaac Bedelion or for his wife Oscella Bedelion in Gloucester County records.

CHAPTER VI.

CONRAD HURFF

Conrad Hurff we assume was the second son of Johann Balthaser and Catharina Harff. That he was not required to take the oath of allegiance and sign the register on arrival in America is that only males 16 years and over were duty bound to register and Conrad was not yet 16 on October 21, 1754. We judge that he was born in Germany about the year 1738 or 1740, we have found no records to show his birth date or at any time do we find his age given.

On April 23, 1764 the register of St. Micheals Church, Phila., states that "Conrad Harff was married to Anna Riesin. The witnesses were Joh: Balthas. Harff, Johannes Ries & wife Anna Maria, Nicolay Muller and Philip Schlatter." (p. 257)

Anna Ries was evidently the daughter of Johannes Ries and wife Anna Maria who were two of the witnesses, and he may have been the same Johannes Ries who came on the Friendship to America 1754.

From 1764 we find Conrad closely associated with the development and the maintenance of the homestead farm located at what is now called Turnerville, at that time in Deptford Township, Gloucester County.

When the Revolutionary War broke out Conrad Hurff would be a young man in his early thirties. By an Act of the Assembly of New Jersey all men were required to take the Oath of Allegiance. On July 18, 1775, the Continental Congress recommended to the United Colonies that all able bodied men between the ages of sixteen and fifty years in each colony immediately form themselves into regular companies of militia. Foreign born men were required to take the Oath of Allegiance. "Conrad Hooff" went before Judge Samuel Harrison, at the October Term 1776 of Gloucester County Court, as appears from some old papers found by the W.P.A. in the basement of the County building.

It is presumed that Conrad Hurff served in Captain Richard Cheesman's Company from Gloucester County, on what was termed a "tour of duty" for a three month period, but there is no enrollment found to verify the service record.

After the death of his father, Conrad Hurff had an unpleasant time with ejectment proceedings and settlement of the estate. Just why his sister Ursula, who had been well provided for by the will of her late husband, David Roe, should have taken the attitude she did is not understood at this day.

The affidavits filed in the title dispute and Orphans Court litigations which followed show that for a long time Conrad Hurff had taken over the active management of the homestead farm.

The attorney for Conrad Hurff in his contested Orphans Court proceedings was John W. Lawrence, Jr., brother of Captain James Lawrence, who died in a Naval battle and is noted for his dying remark, "Don't Give up the Ship." The brothers studied law together from 1779 to 1798 at Woodbury, and lived in the house which is now the Gloucester County Historical Society Building, and no doubt Captain James Lawrence may have done some work on this case.

Catharina Hurff, the mother, also testified that Conrad had supported his father and that she lived with her son.

On March 31, 1789 Conrad Hurff enlarged on his holdings for we find that an unrecorded deed of that date made by John Hedger, Executor of the last Will of David Roe, conveyed to Conrad Hurff, for a consideration of 55 pounds 1 shilling, a tract of land adjoining the Old Peter Cheesman Mill Pond, described as follows:

"Beginning at a holly tree stadning by the Southerly Branch of Timber Creek. (1) Up the said branch to a pine for a corner (2) South 72 degrees, West 52 chains and one half to a gum; (3) North 23 degrees West 39 Chains and a half to a fourth corner (4) North 72 degrees East 44 chains and 25 lings to the place of Beginning CONTAINING 192 acres but after deducting what was sold heretofore out of said tract there remains to the said Hurff, 50 acres be the same more or less."

In July 1789 in Book A, of Boundaries and Divisions, in the Office of the Gloucester County Clerk, is an agreement between Conrad Hurff, and John Williams, fixing boundary lines for their adjoining properties, being the property he had lately purchased from John Hedger, Executor, etc. It is dated July 28, 1789, and was recorded August 7th 1790. The witnesses were John Hurff and Henry Hurff, the sons of Conrad.

In the New Jersey Supreme Court for the May Term 1792 "Isaac Bedelion and Osella, his wife, on the First day of February, granted to farm let to the said John Den, one equal undivided part out of five equal parts of two messuages, of one barn, of one shop, of one garden, of one orchard, of one hundred and fifty acres of land, of one hundred and fifty acres of Arable land, of one hundred and fifty acres of meadow land, of one hundred fifty acres of pasture land and of one hundred acres of woodland with the appurtenances situate lying and being in the said Township of Deptford—"

As noted before the second proceedings in the Gloucester County Orphans' Court on April 30, 1798 Conrad Hurff as administrator of his father's estate conveyed to Thomas Taber the homestead premises. It had been exposed to sale and Thomas Taber bid L399 : 13 shillings and one penny.

A further deed was given May 3, 1798 by Thomas Taber and his wife Margaret which conveys the homestead back to Conrad Hurff with clear title, for the same amount that was stipulated in the deed of April 30.

It is interesting to note that Conrad always signed his business transactions and other papers by mark, "C" apparently not having learned to write; his sister Ursula also signed by mark. During their childhood which would have been between the years of 1745 to 1755 there may not have been an opportunity for schooling.

Conrad Hurff made his will the 29th day of August 1805, That no mention is made of his wife Anna in the will, suggests she may have predeceased him. Most probably about the year that he purchased the burial lot at St. John's Burial ground.

By May 16th 1806 when his will was probated Conrad Hurff had passed on. We would judge that he was approximately 66 years of age.

of Conrad Hurff, deceased
Account passed.

The like, and ballance of One Thousand six hundred and twenty three Dollars, and fifty eight cents to be disposed according to the Will of the Testator.

The homestead farm, that had been purchased and occupied by Johann Balthaser Harff 1760 was taken over by his son Conrad as has been shown by deeds of transfer.

Perhaps it would be interesting to know what this old homestead looked like. From one deed it states it was "down a lane on the south westerly side of Old Cape Road." In a suit of Supreme Court 1792 it consisted "of two messuages, one barn, one shop, one garden, one orchard, etc." From our own knowledge the old house stood on a knoll on the southerly side of Stephens Run, a tributary of Big Timber Creek. The house was of substantial frame construction, with a lean-to kitchen and a brick floored shed extending across the back of the house towards the east. The house had probably been built by David Roe, about the time he married, 1737 or a little later and was typical of the period. The old smoke house stood near the south east corner of the house shaded by a large maple tree.

From an old sketch the middle section was the original part of the house. When the new part was added it was made three steps higher than the older part and set to the northeast side extending toward the road. The cellar under the new part was brick floored and had a large fire-place.

This addition may have been made by Conrad Hurff after he had a clear title to accomodate his growing family. For in the inventory of 1806 it states "the downstairs bed-room & bedding", "two beds and bedding in east room upstairs," and "bed in west room upstairs." The stairway was in the main or middle room, on the north east side facing the lane. Wide floor boards, hand made window trim and baseboards and the hand blown glass of the small window panes attest to its age.

That the early Hurff's were a religious people is shown by the church records of that day. In the 1790's we find Conrad Hurff supporting a local church, St. John's the Evangelist of Chews Landing, known in those days as "the Church at the head of Timber Creek." This is the oldest Episcopal parish in the Camden diocese and has the distinction of having on its subscription list the names of George Washington, F. A. Muhlenberg, Charles Carroll of Carrollton, and others of Revolutionary fame.

It is said that when the colonial forces bivouacked in the area of Chews Landing, Washington visited the troops there and finding too much drinking and revelry inquired of the proprietor of the inn (the only place of recreation) whether or not a church existed in the neighborhood and was told "no".

He then talked to the farmers and other citizens on the need of a church and told the innkeeper if the residents desired to build a church to let him know and he would contribute. With this suggestion and encouragement the people so decided and Washington was notified.

According to the church records there were two subscription lists, one dated Nov. 14, 1789 made up of local contributors, wherein Conrad Hurff is listed as having contributed £2. The second list is dated Oct. 1, 1791 containing the names before mentioned and also that of Gov. Patterson, of New Jersey, Elias Boudinot, James Madison, Junr., Jonathan Dayton, General Dayton, Joseph Bloomfield, and others.

A frame building was erected in 1790, one year after the parish was formed at the forks of the road leading from Chews Landing to Blackwood and Clementon. In 1881 this was replaced by the present stone structure.

In the early days it was not an unusual sight to see boats manned by slaves wending their way along the creek to church, this being the easiest method of transportation.

The 1789 church records show that lottery tickets were sold to obtain funds for the first building and that Washington's name was on the list of purchasers.

Around the church is the burial ground in which ancestors of many of the local residents lie buried, the Chews, Smiths, Sicklers, Hiders, Brewers, Stetsers, Bees and other pioneers.

Among those having a lot allocated to them Conrad Hurff's and John Hurff's names appear. Lot No. 25 in the church burial ground was assigned to Conrad Hurff 9/6/1789 for which he gave 2 sh 6 p. (p. 187) John Hurff also gave 2 sh 6 p for a lot 4/24/1793. Conrad Hurff's name is on the list of those subscribing to the support of a minister for 7 sh 6 p each year 1791 to 1798, and in the years of 1792, 1793, 1794 and 1795 he served as a vestryman of the church.

The first pastor of this church was the Rev. Levi Heath, who served from Sept. 6, 1789 until June 29, 1795.

(This sketch of the church for the most part was given before the Hurff Family Association by Herbert Clement, Haddonfield, N. J. E.H.J.)

Thus closes all the historical facts that have been found on Johann

Nothing whatever is found on Catharina Harffin, except that she was a sponsor at the baptism of Catharine Harff, daughter of Johannes & wife Maria, born 10/4-5/1760 and baptised 10/11/1760 at St. Micheals Church.

Ursula in her suit for a settlement of the estate sued for and undivided one fifth share, but failed to name the others.

THE HURFF FAMILY REUNION

In response to a general invitation sent to members of the Hurff family, the first reunion was held at Alcyon Park, near Pitman, Gloucester County, New Jersey on August 31, 1904.

Monument Erected to Conrad Hurff

In 1908 the Association voted to place a monument in the St. John's Episcopal Church yard on the lot purchased by Conrad Hurff. It reads:

Hurff erected to the memory of
Conrad Hurff
Died in the year of 1805
His Wife
Anna Reese Hurff
The progenators of the Hurffs
in the United States of America
By their decendants in Family Reunion
Aug. 26, 1908

Since the erection of this monument more information has been found on the family to show that Conrad Hurff was a son and not the progenitor of the Hurff Family in America.

In 1918 Samuel P. Hagerman and Daniel W. Beckley were appointed a committee for collecting family data. In 1922 Mr. Beckley was appointed chairman for locating the relationship of Ursula Hurff.

Thomas W. Hurff, the organizer of the Hurff Reunion deceased December 11, 1918 and Dr. Joseph E. Hurff, was elected president in August 1919. Samuel P. Hagerman, succeeded Dr. Hurff as secretary.

Brooks Hurff, Hurffville, was elected treasurer in 1909 and served until 1918, when he was succeeded by his brother Henry L. Hurff, Hurffville, who held the office until his death June 28, 1941, when Hazel B. Simpson was elected treasurer.

After the death of Dr. Hurff on March 13, 1928, George B. Hurff, Sewell, was elected the third president in August 1928, and Harry Hurff, Berlin, vice-president. Harry Hurff resigned as vice-president in 1935 and his daughter Ethel Hurff Jennings was elected.

George B. Hurff during his presidency wrote to the American consul at Berlin, and received information which led to his contacting Count Theodor Mirbach, then in possession of Harff Castle.

In 1932 Augustus Harff, Stonehurst, Pa., attended the reunion. He had been acting as "Santa Claus" in the Strawbridge & Clothier Store, in the toy department. He told us his father came from Berlin, Germany, but he was unable to make the connections in the family to Castle Harff.

In 1933 Mr. Hagerman reported that he had substantially completed the history and submitted a manuscript of thirty-two pages. The members at the meeting voted that 200 copies of the report be printed for distribution among the families. A committee of five were appointed to see about the publication and were S. P. Hagerman, Walter Clement, Thomas Burrough, Roy S. Evans and Ethel H. Jennings.

The preparation of printing a family history was authorized at a previous meeting. Some progress had been made but owing to some families not responding in supplying data, connecting links were not complete. It was proposed that volunteers be secured each to look up one branch of the family to complete the genealogy.

In 1936 the reunion was held at Grenloch Park, (old Tetamekon or Spring Mills,) the land formerly owned by Jonathan Williams.

In 1940 a committee was named to inquire into the cost and practicability of publishing the family history and genealogy.

On January 11, 1941 George B. Hurff deceased. At the August meeting that year Samuel P. Hagerman was elected president; Ethel Hurff Jennings, vice-president; Anna Hagerman Parks, secretary; Hazel B. Simpson, treasurer.

A new committee was appointed to confer on the publication with Samuel P. Hagerman, Hazel B. Simpson and Alma S. Jones.

1942-43-44 we met with Mr. and Mrs. William M. Evans at Pitman. Alcyon Park had been sold and dismantled. In 1945 we held the reunion on the original homestead land at Turnerville, where we browsed around on the old farm and thru the house as the guest of Mrs. Edna Hurff Shields. In 1946, 47, 48, 49 we met at St. John's Episcopal Parish House, Chews Landing.

At the meeting in 1948 a new publication committee was appointed with Ethel H. Jennings, chairman, Alma S. Jones, and Hazel B. Simpson. The subject of a Hurff Family Bulletin was suggested which was issued in 1949 with the first Chapter of the history.

FAMILY NAME

The family name as set forth in the narrative of the ancestral estate in Germany was "Harff". This spelling was adhered to through the years until after the family of Johann Balthaser Harff had settled in America.

In the Book of Emigrants and also the signing of the Oath of Allegiance in 1754 it was spelled "Harff".

In the deed of 1760 given by David Roe, he conveys the land to John Baltus Horfe, of Deptford Township, Gloucester County, New Jersey.

When Conrad was married at St. Michaels Church, Phila., in 1764 his name was given as Conrad Harff. In 1777 when Ursula and David Roe had the marriage Bond issued in New Jersey the name was Ursula Hurff.

When the naturalization papers were taken out in 1769 at Burlington the father signed as John Baltus Hurff.

In 1784 when letters of administration were taken out it was for Baltus Hurff with Conrad Hurff appointed as the administrator.

In the Quit Claim, litigation and suits for ejectment the name appears in various ways of spelling.

The accepted spelling for the New Jersey branch of the family is HURFF. The only change from the original spelling is from the "a" to "u". The various spellings are due to the fact that writers of deeds, marriages, bonds, etc., spelled the name accordingly to the phonetic sound.

THE HURFF FAMILY

- I 1. Johann Balthaser Harff, the progenitor of the Harff-Hurff family of Gloucester County, N. J. was born in Germany about 1700 and died in Gloucester County, N. J. before April 24, 1784 when administration was granted on his estate. He married in Germany about 1730/35. Catharine () last name unknown, born in Germany about 1702 and died in Glo. Co., N. J., after July, 1798 when she was aged 96 years. Both are probably buried in St. John's P. E. Cemetery, Chews Landing, N. J.
- II 2. Johannes Harff, born before 1738 as he was 16 years of age and over 1754; died at Reading, Penna., after 1810. He married 2-20-1760 at St. Micheals Ch. Phila., Anna Maria Nagel.
3. Ursula Harff, born Germany, died in Glo. Co., N. J., after 1798. Married 7-24-1767 by N. J. License David Roe, as his second wife, he died 1784 and she married (2) Isaac Bedelion.
4. Conrad Hurff, born in Germany 1738/40; died in Glo. Co., N. J. before May 16th, 1806. Married 4-23-1764 at St. Micheals Ch., Phila., Anna Ries, who died probably about 1789.
5. Catharina Harff, all that is known of her is that she was a sponsor at the baptism of her brother Johannes' first child in Phila.

SECOND GENERATION

An old piece of paper found among the effects of the Hurff Family is authority for the dates of the births of some of the children. It is a worn, folded and faded note and has one quarter of the left hand side torn out, the writing is partly in German-English script.

Conrad Hurff was married to Anna his wife April 23rd day, 1764 and had issue, that is to day:—

John was born Feb. the 2d Day 1765

Orcela was born Septtr the 5th Day 1766

Septtr the 13th Day 1768

October the 14th Day 1770

June the 7th Day 1775

April the 27th Day 1778

(N. B. the blank space on left side indicates the torn part.)

Beginning with the third generation the genealogy is arranged in eight separate sections. The first child of each of the children in the third generation begins the fourth IV generation of that line and is numbered 16. The numbers follow consecutively through each section irrespective of the numbers of any line. The numbers preceding the name of each child is later placed above the same name in the same line to show marriage and issue.

- II 4. CONRAD HURFF, born in Germany 1738/40; died in Glo. Co., N. J. before May 16, 1806. Married 4-23-1764 Anna Maria Ries, who died in Glo. Co., N. J. probably 1789. She was a daughter of Johannes and Anna Maria () Ries. Their children were all born at the homestead at what is now called Turnerville, Glo. Co., N. J.

- III 7. John Hurff, born 2-2-1765 d. after 1850.
8. Priscilla Hurff, born 9-5-1766 died about 10-6-1830.
9. Henry Hurff, born 9-13-1768 died 2-21-1853.
10. Hurff, born 10-4-1770.
11. Catharine Hurff, born 6-7-1776 died 7-26-1805.
12. Elizabeth Hurff, born 4-27-1778 died 7-14-1849.
13. George Hurff, born 7-22-1780 died 9-1-1871.
14. Ann T. Hurff, born 1-29-1784 died 2-27-1855.
15. Isaac Hurff, born 1787 died 7-24-1849.

- III 7. JOHN HURFF, was baptised at St. Micheals Church 4-7-1765 as "Johannes Harph" born Feb. 2, sponsors Joh: Balthaser Harph and wife Catharina.

Information on the life of John Hurff is very meagre. In the will of David Roe, 2-14-1783 he left "to John Hurff a watch." On 3-31-1789 he was a witness together with Elizabeth Hedger and Jacob Williams to the deed conveying fifty acres of land from John Hedger, Excr. to Conrad Hurff, which had formerly belonged to David Roe, and was purchased 1746 of Walter Griffiths and was part of an original 192 acres. On Jan. 9, 1792 John Hurff purchased for himself seventeen acres and 17 perches of land from Matthias Bingman and wife Elizabeth, of Deptford Township. The deed states for "3 A 1/4 and 32 perch of land surveyed to Jonathan Williams, which Jonathan Morgan, Adm'r to said Williams and 7 A's 1/4 and 25 perches from John Hedger to said Matthias Bingman for £11: 5 sh." The witnesses to the deed were John Williams and Conrad Hurff. This piece of land was bounded by Sommers, D. Bates, and land formerly of Walter Griffiths in Deptford Township. This land in 1867 was the property of Thomas Simpkins.

In 1805 when Conrad Hurff made his will he left his son John Hurff £ 5. He had probably given John his share when he purchased this land and helped him get established, he certainly had something to do with it for he signed as one of the witnesses to the transaction. In Nov. 1792 he acted as one of the appraisers for the estate of William Biggins of Gloucester County who had died intestate. Daniel Bates had been appointed administrator on Oct. 22, 1792.

By Nov. 30, 1792 the New Jersey Legislature passed an entirely new militia law. Under this act all able-bodied men between the ages of 18 and 45 years had the privilege of either enrolling in the county militia or paying an annual tax of three dollars. In the list for Deptford Township, Gloucester County Militia we find the names of 'John Hurf' and 'Henry Hurf' and in Greenwich Township we find the name of 'William Hooff'. (Notes on Old Glo. Co., by F. H. Stewart, p. 49 & 50, Vol. 3.)

From the records at St. John's P. E. Church 4-24-1793 John Hurff purchased a burial lot. The fact that he had purchased a piece of land, and later purchased a burial lot would lead one to believe that he had been married previous to these transactions, but if he were, the name of the wife is unknown. We do know that on Dec. 26, 1809 he married Elizabeth Dilkes.

In a record of an 'Old Coffin Book' at the Gloucester County Historical Society, there is a note of a coffin sold Sept. 18, 1815 for 'John Hurf, child;' and again April 24, 1825 'John Hurf, child.' Traditions in the family state that "Willie died from whooping cough when quite a big boy."

If this is the case, then William Hurff was the child who died 1825 and would then be fifteen years old. Who then was the other child who died in 1815? Was it a child by the first marriage?

As far as known John Hurff lived for the most part of his life in and around what is now known as Turnerville. During his later days he was inclined to do childish things. One time when Mary Elizabeth and John Dilkes his grand children were playing in the barn, John Hurff slipped up the ladder to the hayloft and hid something under the hay. The children frightened, told this to their parents who on investigation found that the old man had hidden his money there and never thought of it again. He was then a man past 85 years of age.

When John Hurff died has not been recorded.

In the Dilkes family there is a round ball-shaped piece of mahogany which came from the foot of a dresser of John and Elizabeth Hurff. This has been used in the family for generations as a stocking darner and possesses many a needle prick. It is now in possession of Mary E. Jarvis, St. Petersburg, Florida.

John Hurff, born 2-2-1765 died after Dec. 1850. He married Elizabeth Dilkes, born about 1778 who died 12-21-1850 near Blackwood, aged 72 years. Their children

- IV 16. William Hurff, born 1810 died probably 4-24-1825 from the effects of whooping cough.
- 17. Elizabeth Ann Hurff, b. 1812
- IV 17. ELIZABETH ANN HURFF, born 1812 married 1-7-1836 by William Williams at Clarksboro, N. J. (County Clerks Records) Benjamin H. Dilkes, born 1811 and died 12-26-1885. Benjamin Dilkes, was of Deptford Township, and lived for a time in Gloucester County after his marriage, on the land now called Mrs. Cooks land (1884). This was the same land that John Hurff had owned. Later he moved to Crumpton, Queens County, Maryland, where he died and is buried. He was a farmer for the most part of his life. Benjamin Dilkes in his later years talked a great deal about his family who came from England and settled at what is now Mantua. His granddaughter Bessie remembers that he looked 'very English'. The Dilkes family moved from Mantua to a farm in Crumpton, Maryland, except John William Harrison Dilkes who stayed in Jersey.

- III 8. PRISCILLA HURFF, was originally called Ursula Harff. In 1785 when David Roe made his will he stipulated therein: "To my wife Osella, the house and 20 acres of land where I live, and, after her death, to the heirs of my body; but if she leaves no heirs, then to Osella Hurf, daughter of Conrad Hurf." That she did not receive the land is shown by the Quit claim signed by Isaac Bedelion and his wife Osella, who signed off for £100. Ursula which is German, later became known as Priscilla. Her father named her in his will as Priscilla Beckley, and leaves to her £30. She married David Bechtle, later spelled Beckley, at the German Reformed Church, Phila. He was a wheelwright and had his shop on the westerly side of what was then termed the "Landing Road" and now known as Black Horse Pike, Blackwood. The land owned by him at this location contained two acres and ran back a distance of 541.20 feet.

In an old newspaper item it stated "David Beckley was a Revolutionary Soldier and died at Blackwoodtown." He was a private first class in Captain Robert Maddox's Company of Gloucester Township.

Priscilla Hurff was born 9-5-1766, died about 10-6-1830. She was married at the German Reformed Church, Phila., 10-4-1786 to David Bechtle, (later Beckley) born about 1758 and died 12-18-1841 in his 83rd year. Probably buried in Blackwood Presbyterian Church yard.

however, take Elizabeth Steelman, a daughter of Jane's brother William, to raise.

- IV 17. SARAH BECKLEY, no dates for birth or death are known. She married a man by the name of Noe. She was most generally called "Aunt Noey." For a time they lived in Philadelphia after their marriage. She joined a Mormon group and the family lost track of her. It is presumed that she migrated west with them.

He was always called "Duke." He was born in the vicinity of Blackwood. Later he settled in Long-a-coming, now called Berlin, where he had a farm along present White Horse Pike. He also operated a store in a small building adjacent to his home and manufactured boxes which he sold in Philadelphia. He was a Justice of the Peace for Gloucester County 1829, 1834 & 1835. in the Presbyterian yard at Blackwood. Married 11-18-1829 Keziah Baker, born 10-4-1810, died 5-19-1877, daughter of John and Isabella (Giberson) Baker.

Daniel Beckley lived at Blackwood. In looking for records of the family an old Bible was found at the Atlantic County Historical Society, of the Baker family, wherein it states that "Daniel Backley and Hiziah Baker were married 11-18-1829." In the Court House at Woodbury, the date is given as 11-18-1830. Her name has been spelt Keziah, Kesiah and the Bible spells it Hiziah.

An old newspaper item is the basis for this story handed down on the killing of a panther. It states: "On the 7th inst. (1836) (May) Mr. Daniel Beckley and Mr. Dilkes, who were out amusing themselves with their dogs, near Blackwoodtown, had their attention arrested by the earnestness with which their canine companions engaged in the sport, and after an animated hunt of an hour and a half, the sportsmen treed the game at a height of fifty feet. Here for the first time, the game came in view, and instead of sly Reynard, it proved to be a Panther! None of the party were armed, and being determined not to lose the prize, one of the men stayed with the dogs by the tree, while the other went several miles for a gun. A load of cold lead brought him down from his eminence, and upon measuring, he was found to be five feet long, two and a half high, and so heavy as to require the united strength of both men to carry him. The panther is of the feline species, a sort of first cousin to the tiger, and ranges the depths of the remotest American forests. How our hero wandered so far from home, or whence he came, we must leave to the conjecture of our readers. (Camden Mail, May 17, 1836)

He was able to do as well with one eye as most smiths with two. As an apprentice the life of a boy was not all roses. He was to get a suit of clothes and $25.00 when he completed his work, but instead when he asked for this contract to be fulfilled he got a kick-out.

- III 9. HENRY HURFF born September 13, 1768 so states the slip of paper found with the birth dates of the children noted thereon. The early days of his life were spent on the homestead farm of his father, Conrad Hurff, at what is today called Turnerville. He was the second son of the family and was named by his father in his will of 1805 as one of the Executors of his estate. He shared equally with his brothers George and Isaac. On March 31-1879 Conrad Hurff purchased a piece of land from John Hedger, executor for the David Roe Estate. Afterward an agreement was made with the owner of the adjoining land, John Williams, to draw a boundary line between the two properties with Conrad's sons Henry and George to witness where the boundary lines were placed.

An unrecorded deed dated Jan. 1- 1807 states that Henry and George Hurff, executors of Conrad Hurff, deceased, sold to comply with the conditions of the will 197½ acres. Thomas Wilkins having been the highest bidder at public auction bought the land for $1471.25.

This same land was bought back again by Henry and George Hurff after the legacies had been paid. Henry took the land on the south side of Stephens Run or the 'homestead' and George, the land on the north side of Stephens Run.

It was assumed that Henry Hurff had always lived on the homestead farm, but from a deed dated June 20, 1809 Henry Hurff is represented as "of Woodwich Township, Gloucester County." It could have been that he married a girl from that vicinity and established a home there, returning to Deptford Township and the home farm, after his father's estate was settled and a division of the property agreed upon between he and George his brother.

He continued farming and lived to take his grandson the third Henry upon his knee and show him the interesting features about his desk, still a treasured possession in the family.

"Henry Hurff died February 21, 1853 in his 85th Year near Blackwood" so states a newspaper item. He was buried in Bethel Cemetery, Hurffville. His tombstone reads "Henry Hurff, Died Feb. 21, 1853. Age 84 years, 5 mos. and 8 days."

No will is found in the Gloucester County Surrogate's

Office for Henry Hurff nor does a distribution of his estate show up.

What the maiden name of his wife Nancy was, there is no record. Who her parents were or her home town are unknown. As Nancy Hurff she made her will and five years after Henry's death she died Jan. 18, 1858, and is buried in Bethel Cemetery along side of Henry. Her will was proved Jan. 27, 1858 and reads:-

"In the name of God, Amen, I, Nancy Hurff, of the Township of Washington, in the County of Camden and State of New Jersey being of sound mind memory and understanding for which blessing I thank God, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner of following:-

First—it is my will and I do order that all my just debts and funeral expenses be duly paid and satisfied as soon as conveniently can be after my decease.

Item—I give and bequeath unto my two daughters Ann and Elizabeth Wood all my moneys cash on hand or due me on bonds, etc., after the above expenses are paid to be equally divided between the same.

Item—second—I do give and bequeath unto my granddaughter Emeline Hurff my bureau and bed.

Lastly I do leave my son Joseph Hurff as Executor to this my Last will and testament.
signed, sealed, published and delivered by the said Nancy Hurff to be her testament and last will in the presence of us.

Evidently her right name was Ann, as it so appears on her tombstone at Bethel Cemetery, Nancy was a familiar form of Ann. Her stone reads "Ann Hurff Died Jan. 18, 1858, aged 85 years."

- IV 16. Joseph Hurff, born 6-4-1798, died 5-7-1881.
17. John C. Hurff, born 12-12-1799, died 7-16-1866.

19. Henry Hurff, born 9-4-1804, died 6-4-1855.
20. Elizabeth Hurff, born 4-7-1807, died 3-16-1897.

- IV 16. JOSEPH HURFF, the oldest son of Henry and Nancy Hurff was reared on the home farm and received what schooling was available at the Deptford school. His name comes up the first time in records when he pays a tax of $10.45 on Dec. 15, 1828. On Jan. 18, 1830 Joseph Hurff begins to assume business ability when he and his brother lease from Benjamin Tomlinson "all that certain plantation and mills in the Township of Gloucester and County of Gloucester for $650."

By 1833 we find from papers in possession of the family that Joseph Hurff was Clerk for the Washington Township Schools when a receipt was noted "3-1-1833 John Brown, Dr. to Joseph Hurff to tuition 21 days 58.3 wood 7.3 balance .651½¢."

On Feb. 6, 1834 Joseph Hurff purchased from Samuel A. Porch for $950. a farm in what is now called Hurffville. consisting of 64 and 52/100 acres. This is the first Hurff to live in present Hurffville.

A mortgage was given from Joseph Hurff to Samuel A. Porch for $650. Feb. 6, 1834 "for a farm and tract of land situate in the Township of Deptford bounded by Daniel Lamb, late belonging to Abigail L. Porch; by lands of Harvey Turner, Jesse B. Thompson late Turners lands and by lands of Ann Porch and Elizabeth D. Porch and others containing 64 acres and 52/100. Being the same that was assigned and set off to the said Samuel A. Porch in the division of certain real estate which the said Samuel Porch and his sisters became seized of by the death of their father John Porch and by the will of their grandfather Samuel Porch and is marked #1 on the map annexed to said division and being the same premises which the said Samuel A. Porch by Indenture bearing even date herewith granted and conveyed to the said Joseph Hurff." The original deed is still in the family.

By 1836 we find Joseph Hurff Collector of taxes for Washington Township, a notice reads: "Rec'd 12 mo 22, 1837 of Joseph Hurff, collector of Washington Township, $727.72½ on account of State and County taxes for year 1836. Sam Webster, Co. Collector."

On Sept. 9, 1852 a deed was given by Christopher Sickler, Junr. and wife Priscilla H. to Joseph Hurff for a tract of land in Washington Township containing 86 acres. It was recorded in Book R. of Deeds page 58. It was a corner to James Jessups, Joseph Hurff and Richard Fleetwood, and was the same land conveyed to Mary and Elizabeth Lord 4-28-1848.

On March 25, 1852 Joseph Hurff goes on a Bond and Warrant to Abigail Atwood "Know all men by these presents I, Joseph Hurff of the County of Camden and state of New Jersey are held and firmly bound unto Abigail Atwood, formerly Downs, for the purpose of securing to her right of dower in the real estate of her former husband John W. Downs dec'd in share released by her to the son John W. Downs in the real estate of his father John Down dec'd, her late husband, dec'd and I, Joseph Hurff having bought said real estate of said John W. Downs and wife subject to the aforesaid Dower bound in the sum of Forty dollars annually lawful money of the United States to be paid to the said Abigail Atwood, wife of Joseph Atwood her assigns to which payment well and truly to be made I do hereby bind myself my heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Witness my hand and seal this 25 day of March 1852 signed and sealed in the presence of Calvin G. Richman.

On July 26, 1852 Joseph Hurff purchased from James A. Murphy and wife Jane Ann, a tract of bush land in Washington Township of 43 acres. It was originally a tract of 500 acres that had been devised to Mary and Elizabeth Lord by the last will and testament of their mother Sarah Lord.

On Nov. 27, 1854 he purchased of Aquilla Sharp and Susannah a tract of land in Washington Township on the road from Josiah Heritages to Crosskeys Tavern containing 40 and 66/100 acres.

On Nov. 23, 1854 there was a cancelled mortgage deed of Joseph Hurff to Joseph Ogden for $4000. for three tracts of land all adjoining one another (1) the land of 43 acres purchased from James Murphy (2) 86 acres purchased of Christopher Sickler and (3) 40 acres from Aquilla Sharp.

On March 26, 1855 a Mortgage Deed of Joseph Hurff and wife Elizabeth was given for $3000 for lands on the farm where Joseph Hurff then lived off the Egg Harbor-Woodbury road across to Hurffville and by lands of John S. Wood.

In 1855 his brother Henry died and on June 20, 1855 Joseph was granted administration on the estate (Book A. p. 228 Camden Co.) Further information on this administration will be given under Henry Hurff, Jr.

On June 13, 1857 he purchased 27 and 13/100 acres from West Jessup and wife Marcha C. and again in July 1859 he purchased an additional 12 and 50/100 acres which land had formerly been the estate of West Jessup's father, James Jessup.

The last deed in the family is that where Joseph Hurff purchased a lot of land at Bethel from John Wilson on the 24th of Nov. 1873 for $1200. containing 40/100 of an acre.

Thus the records show that Joseph Hurff lived a long and useful life. He died May 7, 1881 at the age of 82 years and 11 months. He was born June 4, 1798. He married 10-17-1822 Rebecca Smallwood, at Blackwood by Isaac Hinchman, J. P. She was born 11-11-1799 and died 10-8-1830.

Their children were:

- V 21. Deborah Hurff, born 7-10-1823, died 3-15-1840.

- 23. Rebecca Hurff, born 8-6-1826, died 7-3-1844.
- 24. Emeline Hurff, born 8-16-1830.

After the death of his wife Rebecca Hurff, Joseph Hurff was married (2) 1-5-1837 by Rev. Wm. Lummis, M. E. Preacher, to Elizabeth Leonard, born 6-8-1818 and died 8-16-1859 a daughter of Jesse and Mercy (Collins) Leonard. In 1849 Mary S. (Chew) Leonard, second wife of Jesse Leonard, made a Release of Dower. (Book J. of Deeds page 118) "Know all ye by these presents that I, Mary S. - IV 17. JOHN CARTER HURFF, born 12-12-1799 was about ten years old when his father took possession of the homestead farm. He married a Turnerville girl Joanna Turner. In the marriage records they are named as of "Deptford Township" and were married by the Rev. Richard Sneath, one of the Circuit Riders of the Methodist Church, who at that time was about to retire, as this marriage was the last he performed, so far as can be ascertained. Joanna was the daughter of another circuit rider John Turner, preacher, as he is called in the Bethel Church records. His grandson used to tell that he thought Sunday should be a day of rest for man and beast, if he could possibly get on foot to meeting where he was to preach, he refused to ride his horse.

John C. Hurff's high gray beaver hat, carpet bag and cane

During his early married life John C. Hurff operated a farm on Good Intent Hill near Blackwood, moving from there about 1836 to a Cooper farm near Haddonfield. A short time later he purchased a place on the Evesham Road where he resided until his death.

He had many activities besides farming, such as cutting timber for charcoal and firewood. It was the custom to haul the wood to a wharf on the Camden side of the Delaware, rank it up and wait for the river to freeze over, then hurry with the ox teams to draw it to the Phila. side to sell. He owned cedar swamp in the vicinity of Waterford where they mined cedar logs to be used for shingles. The logs were taken up in pleasant weather but were hauled home by a four mule team after the ground was frozen, the round trip sometimes taking two days.

Near his home there was a field fenced in where he kept a deer park, this was a novelty even in those days and on Sundays there were many sightseers. Sometimes, no one seemed to know how, a deer would get out and John would send for his neighbors, with horses and dogs to give chase. Those not invited frowned on such sport. He met death accidentally, being dragged by a runaway horse, 7-16-1866 and was buried at Bethel Cemetery, where he had buried his wife Joanna Turner Hurff in 1859. That John C. Hurff was not named in his mother's will of 1858 may be that he was well provided for and had been given his share at the settlement of his father's estate.

He was married 2-13-1823 by the Rev. Richard Sneath, Elder of the M. E. Church to Joanna Turner, of Deptford Township, born 3-3-1803 and died 3-17-1859, a daughter of John and Elizabeth (Carter) Turner. Their children were:

- V 35. Charles Hurff, born 3-29-1824, died 4-22-1825.
 - 36. Waters Burris Hurff, born 12-2-1825, died 3-16-1908.
 - 37. Mary Ann Hurff, born 10-23-1827, died 1913.
 - 38. Joseph T. Hurff, born 2-13-1831, died 3-9 or 10-1891.

 - IV 19. HENRY HURFF, JR., born 9-4-1804, died 6-4-1855. Henry Hurff, the grandson of Conrad lived on the Turnerville farm after his marriage to Ann Dilks in 1836. His older brothers having been married for some time had no doubt, well established homes and were glad for their brother Henry to stay on with the old folks. His mother Nancy Hurff outlived her son Henry by three years. One of her grandsons told his granddaughter who thought to shock the old gentleman by nonchalantly lighting a cigarette, "That's nothing, your great grandmother smoked a pipe."

There was a smoke house in the yard, where a barrel of lye was kept, a necessity in those days when every one made soap. The family had a tame crow, a great pet, one day for some reason he flew into the smoke house and perched on the barrel of lye, fell in and was drowned. There was great mourning on the part of both adults and children.

An old tax bill for the year 1848 has been preserved in the family and reads:- "Mr. Henry Hurff, Jr., Your Tax in the Township of Washington, for the year 1848 is 2 dollar 75 cents. Returnable 20th Oct.

Appeal, Monday the 11th Sep. at Cross Keys.

Joel Steelman, Collector"

These papers he loaned to the Hurff Family Association for itemizing, and it is from his collections that we are able to make a more complete history on the Joseph Hurff settlement in what is today Hurffville. Henry L. Hurff was a successful farmer. For a term of thirty years he was clerk for the Washington Township Board of Education. He made his home on the farm on Crosskeys Road, where the grandson Henry Hurff now lives. (1951) He was made treasurer for the Hurff Association in 1918 and served until his death 1941.

Henry Hurff attended every Pitman Grove Camp Meeting from the first meeting 1871 up until the time of his death. He stated that he, Albert Collins, and George B. Goodenough walked to the camp every night, four or more miles. They were only boys and did not dare to take a horse. The roads were sandy, and from Reeves Mill, now the Electric Light Plant, was through the woods from the stone house farm and came out on what is now Pitman Avenue. There were no houses only what belonged to the Camp Association. People attending camp on returning home would sing hymns and often one could hear the people singing hymns after midnight on the roads. Everyone who could sing seemed to want to be singing those good old hymns that everybody liked to hear so well, a thing of the past. Both he and his wife are buried in Bethel Cemetery.

Laurel, about 1855, where he was a successful grower of sweet potatoes, tomatoes and cantaloupes for the early market in Phila. He attended the Methodist Church in Marlton, which he helped to build. It is said that it required two horses to pull the carriage through the sandy roads of those days, loaded as it was with six or seven children. She was born 11-20-1842 and died 5-29-1925, a daughter of Paul H. and Hannah (Eldridge) Sickler. This Henry Hurff was born on the homestead and lived there during his early years. His father having died 1855, his mother remarried and with her second husband Obediah Eldridge moved to a farm in the vicinity of Williamstown. Their neighbors the Sicklers had a very attractive school teacher daughter Amy, who became the wife of Henry D. After his marriage Henry D. settled on the Turnerville farm where he remained for several years, then desiring a change turned the farm over to a brother and interested himself in other lines of endeavor. In the middle 1870's he felt his health would be improved by a change of climate and moved the family to Kansas. After three or four years a longing for the feeling of Jersey sand led them back east where they settled on a farm in Sicklerville, the sons now taking the active farm management.

Amy Sickler Hurff was surely one of those people born with a 'green thumb,' she had a gift with growing things and whether he enjoyed it or not Henry was pressed into assisting with the gardening. It is said he used to protest mightily. He would rather go hunting and did as long as he could carry a gun. At one time they had a green house heated by a wood stove it was the duty of the young people of the family to stay out skating or at any other winter diversion late enough to stoke the heater so the plants would not freeze. At the age of eighty Grandmother Hurff still cherished her flowers and had a wonderful display of spring bulbs and many rare and lovely house plants.

The desk which had belonged to the first Henry Hurff came by inheritance to Henry D. but was left in the care of his brother Edward, during the Kansas sojourn. When the family finally settled in Sicklerville, the desk much the worse for wear and tear of movings was looked on as so much junk. However Henry D. rescued it and it was during the restoration that the original deed and survey map made by Samuel Clement for "John Baltus Horfe" came to light in a secret compartment. There were other deeds and papers also, which were of great assistance in the establishment of the family records. The desk is now in the possession of Harry (Harrington S.) Hurff of Sicklerville, he is the fourth generation to own it.

After he married he bought the place that had formerly been owned by his grandfather Joseph Hurff, which had been purchased of John Wilson in 1873 for the sum of $1200. W. Carter thence to a corner to lot of ground sold to the Trustees of Bethel Church to place of beginning. This was the same land that had been conveyed to Dennis Conlin in 1865 by John R. During the war years when the Womens Emergency Corps was organized to help farmers gather their crops, Grover Hurff was one of the first farmers to engage their services. One time several years ago this farm was the scene of a colorful affair when the Long Island Hunt Club were the guests of Thomas L. Grier, at Bethel Lake, at an old fashioned fox chase. About thirty members came down from Long Island with their hound dogs by plane and were met at the Camden Airport. The horses had been shipped down earlier. After the hunt started the chase was over various farms of the neighborhood, the fox finally came across the Hurff farm and was the most exciting chase Hurffville had ever seen. The hunters were all dressed in their full hunting garb of which the plainest seen were the pink jackets and derby hats. The horses and dogs were beautiful creatures. To make the affair more exciting the fox was treed in the meadow of Samuel Evans. Edith Down was a school teacher before her marriage and taught at Bunker Hill school.

He first was in business in Haddonfield, 1929, he purchased the Albert Hurff property at Hurffville, he remodeled the house and made it a very attractive residence and a show place of the town. This farm had what was termed a 'flowing well.' To the casual observer it would seem that he had constructed a rockery through which water flows down to the cedar water, at the foot of a 20 foot slope. But this is a flowing well of which there are only two in the county. A flowing well differs from an artesian well in that water from the latter must be pumped. There is enough pressure in a flowing well to carry it from far underground up to the surface and high in the air. Usually these wells are struck in low places near streams. That is the case with this, which was drilled by John W. North, of Sewell. Water from this well spouted out four feet in the air in a stream about two inches circumference. Mr. Young furnished water for his house from this well, which is enclosed to the height of the stream with an attractive formation of Jersey brown-stone. The water flows into a rock basin, then to a rocklined channel and on to another pool. Flowers fill the pool and little iron frogs spit water from the diverted flow. The water finally flows to the spillway below the Bethel Lake dam, a picturesque spot for many years. Later he sold this property and moved to Glassboro.

From the slip of paper preserved in the family records the name of this child was lost when the corner of the paper was torn. After serving his time he married and went into the undertaking business at Clarksboro, N. J. at which place he resided ten years. After this he went to Swedesboro, engaging in the business several years before retiring. This business he sold to William Hannold in 1850. He was a local preacher and deacon in the Methodist Episcopal Church, with which he was connected many years. He took a very active part in church work and was prominent in all departments of the same. He was a man of considerable mental ability and was possessed of a very retentive memory and well versed in scripture history. It is told that one time when a preacher was giving a sermon some statement was made that did not suit John. He got up and raising his hand said "Brother, you are not quoting the scripture!" Being well known in the community he was highly respected and honored. He was also known to have gone into court to plead minor cases of the men in the community and usually won his point due to his good memory. For a number of years he suffered a two fold affliction, that of deafness and blindness. While his advanced years declared that he could not remain in this life much longer, the community regretted to learn of his death. Due to his church work he was always called "Reverend John." He was an old fashioned Methodist. He is buried in Lake Park Cemetery, Swedesboro.

fining work developed a lung condition at the age of 21 years. In two years he regained his health but his illness had cost him his seven years savings. He was offered a good position to return to the bank, but was afraid to confine himself indoors, he secured a position with Wm. R. Poinsett in the Farmers Supply business. The next year he was encouraged by Mr. Poinsett to enter the Produce business on his own account as a side line, (there had always been a Davidson in the Produce Business in Swedesboro) from this he went into the Farm Machinery business, but continued to manage the Poinsett business. After another two years Mr. Poinsett wanted to retire from business so James Davidson purchased the business and at the same time B. A. Headley wanted to sell his warehouse which James also purchased and organized the Swedesboro Supply Company. All of these businesses being consolidated under one head with the exception of the Produce business. After about two years the other partners in the Swedesboro Supply wanted to purchase his interest and he sold it. For a few years following this, his only active business interest was in Produce. In this period he became interested in Securities through acquaintances made when a lad as a bank clerk. He invested heavily in Florida and the 1925 hurricane caused him such heavy capital losses that he felt the necessity of going back into business. He organized a brokerage firm dealing in securities in Philadelphia which was successful from its inception. After a little less than two years he was compelled to liquidate this business in spite of the fact that it was highly profitable because of the offers made to his two junior partners it seemed better, however they both later regretted this. The following two years he continued in the securities business as an employee of another brokerage firm at a very handsome salary. At the end of this period he organized another firm which was also in business less than two years. He was compelled to liquidate this firm again because of junior partners.

For the next eight years he held various positions and in February 1938 he returned to Swedesboro to again go into the Farmers Supply business, at the age of fifty years. The next year he again started in the produce business. Both of these businesses have been successful for him and his partners. He is now sixty three years of age and expects to live to be a hundred.

For ten years he was treasurer of Trinity Episcopal Church, Swedesboro, N. J., a charter member of Swedesboro Kiwanis, and a director of the Old Swedesboro Bank. He now resides at Clarksboro, N. J.

It sprang up by accident and has proven a lucky venture from the beginning. It is called "Cowtown." Formerly the sales were held at his residence in Woodstown, but owing to the fact that people objected to an auction being held in the residential section the business was moved, taking with it a great percentage of trade from the town stores. On this 328 acres one can buy anything one would wish for. Not only are things sold but also bought. The place has its own police force and Post-office. In 1938 he purchased Wind River Ranch in Wyoming where he raises beef cattle and steers. He has an air field on both places, and makes flying trips twice a month. He has shipped about 250 carloads of steers east since acquiring the ranch. He also leases from the Government an island in the Delaware River where he raises 750 to 1000 Angora goats. At a shearing he realizes about $1800. from the wool which is made into mohair. That his Tuesday sales are popular is shown by the fact that approximately 20,000 people may be seen at some of them. It is the largest auction in the United States.

- III 13. GEORGE HURFF, born 7-22-1780, died 9-1-1871 in his 92nd year. In going through the Baptismal records of St. Michaels Church on page 188 for the year 1780 there was noted "Conrad Harf residing in New Jersey and Anna his wife, JOHANN GEORGE baptised 8 Nouember who was born 22 Juli." This register was written in German script. It is the first instance that the committee knew that his name was Johann George as he had always been known as just 'George' Hurff.' He was born and raised on the property purchased by his grandfather Johann Baltus Hurff in 1760 from David

GEORGE HURFF

Roe, over which Conrad Hurff, his father had so much litigation. George and Henry, sons of Conrad were appointed the executors of the estate by will of their father.

An unrecorded deed in the custody of Mrs. Richard C. Kirk, a granddaughter of George Hurff, dated "January 1,

1807, Henry Hurf and George Hurf, Executors of the last Will and Testament of Conrad Hurff, deceased, convey to Thomas Wilkins of Woodbury, after a public auction held October 10th, 1806 for \$7.50 per acre 'no person appearing to bid more', the two tracts, to wit: The tract containing 122 $\frac{1}{4}$ acres, which had formerly been the homestead of Johann Baltus Hurff; and also the residue of the tract purchased from the Executors of David Roe, deceased, 'making together in both parcels 197 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres' of which he the said Conrad Hurff died seized, and which they, the said Henry and George Hurf, sold at public vendue as aforesaid amounting to the sum of \$1471.25."

Book C of the minutes of the Orphans Court of Gloucester County page 307 show that Henry and George Hurff, Executors of Conrad Hurff, deceased, had their account passed— "The like, and ballance of One thousand six hundred and twenty three dollars and fifty cents to be disposed according to the Will of Testator."

Evidently Henry and George Hurff buy back the original lands of their father from Thomas Wilkins. This transaction seems to have been one of convenience in settling up of the estate. George Hurff took the land to the north of Stephens Run for his share of the estate. Here on this tract which was part of the original survey he built his home, a low two story frame building similar to other farm houses of its time. This house was evidently built about 1807 or 08.

George Hurff served on various Committees for Washington Township during the years 1838 to 1848. He was a farmer and a good one for his day.

George also had a little sporting blood in his veins. He kept a pacing mare. He certainly did not keep a good horse just to look at, and we can figure that a few good races were held among the owners of horses for the sport. A shoe from this pacer was nailed over the door of the old work shop, today the shoe is in possession of Mary Hurff Kirk.

The marriage of George Hurff and Tamson Williams is given in the Gloucester County Clerk's Records as performed on March 4, 1807 by William Zane, Justice of the Peace. She was the daughter of Captain Jonathan Williams of the Revolutionary War and Patience Chew, a daughter of Richard Chew of Deptford Township, Gloucester County. She was born 4-20-1788.

When Tamson Williams was a small girl she fell in the mill pond and was saved by her clothing keeping her afloat just before she reached the flood gates.

Fortunately very old photographs had been saved in the family of George and Tamson Williams Hurff. There is also preserved a high beaver hat that George Hurff wore when he attended church and funerals. This hat was exhibited at the Hurff Reunion 1949 and the regular collection taken up in it which amounted to $27.14.

George Hurff made his will January 27, 1859, in which he states he resides in Washington Township, Camden County, N. J. It was proved Sept. 17, 1871 (Book F. p. 511, Woodbury, N. J.) in part states:

ITEM: I give and bequeath unto my four daughters,

Mary Cole, Patience Ann Cole, Tamson Nicholson and Catherine Prosser, Twelve hundred dollars each, to be paid to them by my executors hereafter named out of my estate.

ITEM: I give devise and bequeath unto my sons, John Hurff, Isaac Hurff, Thomas W. Hurff, George Hurff, Jr., and Hiram Hurff, all my lands, tenements, here-ditaments and Real Estate whatsoever and wheresoever, to be either divided or sold as a majority of them shall determine to them, their heirs and assigns forever to be divided between them share and share alike. Also all my personal estate to be equally divided between them share and share' alike, after first paying thereout the aforesaid legacies hereinafter bequeathed to my said daughters.

His executors were his sons John and Thomas W. Hurff.

He died Sept. 1-1871 at the age of 91 years 1 mo. and 10 days. His wife died November 11, 1857 aged 64 years, 7 mos. and 1 day. Both are buried in Bethel Cemetery, Hurffville, where their tombstones still stand. Also four of their children are buried at the same cemetery Reas, Elizabeth, Jonathan and Henrietta in the old part of the burial yard.

It has been told in the family that one of George Hurff's grandsons was rather slow in talking and he feared very much that the child never would talk. Some one reminded him that all the others in the family talked, he answered—"Did you ever know a gal that didn't talk?"

In that day matches were not on the market yet, often times the fire would go out and it would be necessary to have some live coals to start a fire. One of the sons would have to go over to Henry Hurff's on the other side of Stephen's Run to 'borrow' some live coals and run back with them to start a fire.

George and Tamson (Williams) Hurff were the parents of thirteen children:-

In 1842 he purchased a farm at what was then termed Bethel. Here he built his home and several tenant houses and from this start the name 'Hurfftown' was applied. He also lumbered and carried on farming. Politically he was a Democrat and was elected a member of the legislature in 1849-1850. He was also a freeholder the same period and during this time he started a store business. Mail was not delivered to this section and Thomas W. Hurff was instrumental in having the mail brought by stage to his store at his own expense. This post-office was named Hurffville, by which name the village has since been known. For several years he was a director of the First National Bank, of Woodbury. He was also a director of the Board of Education. While serving in the legislature he advocated good roads and helped materially to have the stone road system inaugurated. Both he and his wife Hannah J. Since he has come into possession of the property he has sold the larger part of the farm land for what is now the Pitman Airport. There is quite a history to this land. It was once the property of John D. Turner who held the old Bethel Camp Meetings on this ground. When Pitman Camp Meeting was thought of being started the men approached John Turner to make an offer to buy his property. He would not sell. This old camp meeting was run successfully for several years near the period of 1865 to 1876. It was the means of making considerable money for Bethel Church and paid off all indebtedness. There were several cottages but mostly it was a tent colony during camp meeting days. Two of the cottages were moved to Hurffville where they are still standing in a dwelling house occupied by Jacob H. Richards.

The records state he was a son of Ephraim and Mary Cheesman who had their home farm at Lower Landing. Ephraim Cheesman is a direct descendant of Richard Cheesman who was an attorney in New York as early as 1682 and purchased land in Gloucester County, New Jersey about 1700.

Ephraim Cheesman, father of Ephraim S. Cheesman left a will dated Feb. 11, 1807, proved Mar. 7, 1807 as of Gloucester Township, Gloucester County. He names his wife as Mary - - -, his sons as Joseph, not 21, Ephraim S. Cheesman, "part of the homestead plantation beginning in line of John Hider's land on north side of meadow running westerly along said meadow to the Great Road leading to Chews Landing, thence up the lane to the end thereof, then straight with said lane to land late Samuel Cheesman's, then by same to Thorn's land, then by Thorn's land to said John Hider's land to place of bearing to pay his mother £10 yearly. Son Richard S. Cheesman, part of homestead plantation—and Joseph part—. The 200 acres where his son John Cheesman lived to be sold. My three sons, Ephraim S., Richard S., and Joseph remainder of said tract also lands and cedar swamp near the Dutch Mill and my half of a saw mill and piece of cedar swamp in partnership with Henry Thorn near Benjamin Bates Mill; also residue of personal estate to be divided between them." His executors, sons Ephraim S. Cheesman and Richard S. Cheesman. The witnesses were John Hider, David B. Morgan, Jonathan Powell. The inventory was made March 3, 1807.

This Ephraim Cheesman was in Captain Maddox Company of Gloucester Township, Gloucester County Militia, 1st Class (Vol. 3, Notes on Old Gloucester County, F. H. Stewart, p. 29) when he was warned to meet at Haddonfield, Sept. 1st, 1780 to march to Morristown, N. J.

On Oct. 11, 1808 Ephraim S. Cheesman and Richard S. Cheesman sold 200 acres, as per the will of Ephraim Cheesman, to John Ware, to pay debts. This was the property of John Cheesman, deceased.

In 1820 Edmund Brewer took in execution, land of Ephraim S. Cheesman to pay debts contracted by Ephraim S., the 14th of Dec. 1819 for $1452. and took the "farm whereon the said Ephraim S. Cheesman now lives situate in the Township of Gloucester adjoining lands of Joseph S. Cheesman, James Pine and others of 163 acres" which was sold to Edmund Brewer for $210. Letters left by Anna Hurff Cheesman, Ephraim's granddaughter, state that the farm was seized to satisfy payment of a note or bond which Ephraim S. signed for a friend.

Just where Ephraim lived after this is not definitely known, but we find some of the family located around Pedricktown and Bridgeport in Woolwich Township, but according to family tradition, after losing the farm Ephraim S. left his family in New Jersey and journeyed westward to Illinois where he hoped to homestead government lands and regain his lost "fortunes" but was stricken with dysentary soon after his arrival there and died near Elmwood, where it is claimed he is buried.

Ann Hurff Cheesman died 2-27-1855. Of the death of Ephraim S. Cheesman we have no positive date. We find no will or administration for Ephraim S. Cheesman nor where he sold the balance of his father's property. Ann Cheesman of Woolwich Township, Gloucester County left an undated will—wherein she left to the children of her son David Cheesman, to wit: Thomas, Benjamin, Sarah Ann and Hannah Jane Cheesman $25. each.

To her daughter Mary Ann Hurff wife of Thomas Hurff the sum of $110.

The residue of her property she bequeathed unto her sons Bowman and Nehemiah and her daughter Drusilla H. Roberts wife of Nathan Roberts, to be equally divided between them.

She appointed her sons Bowman and Nehemiah Cheesman her executors. Her will was probated March 17, 1855. (Will Book E. p. 320, Woodbury)

The worshippers would come to "Old Stone" from Clarksboro, Bridgeport, Center Square, Pedricktown, Paulsboro, and surrounding neighborhoods. From Center Square they crossed Raccoon Creek at the late Alexander Black's farm and attendants generally walked or rode on horse back to the meeting house."

- III 15. ISAAC HURFF, born in 1787 on the old Hurff homestead at Turnerville where he was trained in the principles and practices of farming and received his rudimentary education in the rural school of that community. After the death of his father, in 1805 and the settlement of the estate by his older brothers George and Henry, Isaac Hurff seems to have taken his money from the settlement and started out for himself in another locality, for we find him established in the vicinity of Swedesboro. Just why he went to that neighborhood, or how long he had been there before he made his first purchase of land is hard at this day to say, but we know that he died seized of considerable estate. He left no will and on Dec. 26, 1849 the Court appointed three commissioners to divide his real estate, they were George Craft, Arthur H. Greeman and John B. Hilyard. The commissioners reported that the only effectual way of making an equal division for all of his children would be to sell at public auction his holdings. This was done at the house of Aaron Hurff, on the Homestead in the Township of Woolwich, Gloucester County. The first piece of ground to be sold was that along Oldmans Creek of 10 and 50/100's acres that Isaac Hurff had purchased of Josiah Gill on Sept. 15, 1827, this was purchased by Henry Hurff, a son for $987.00; and another tract on the public road from Bridgeport to Battentown of 10 and 25/00's acres for which Henry Hurff bid $654.56.

Aaron Hurff seems to have bought in the Homestead place of 205 acres along Oldmans Creek for $8815. which Isaac Hurff had purchased of James S. Gill, August 8, 1839 and another tract of 350 acres that Isaac Hurff had purchased of Elizabeth T. Groof by deed dated May 2, 1846, for which he gave $3450.

John Ashcraft purchased 163 acres for $6357. that Isaac had purchased of Jacob Roberts, March 5, 1846 and John C. Turner paid $653.56 for 23 and 25/100's acres purchased of William Ambruster. Thomas Ballinger gave $210. for 94/100's of an acre that had been purchased of Joseph Knisell, Nov. 17, 1846 and John James gave $3268.95 for 88 and 55/100's acres on the Bridgeport-Battentown road that had been purchased July 25, 1833 of Joseph B. Willetts. Restore Turner purchased 27 acres for $543.37.

All of these transactions were quit claimed by Isaac Hurff's widow, Ann Hurff, July 1, 1850.

Isaac Hurff seems to have been one of the most prosperous agriculturists of that locality. In 1849 he visited his sons who had settled in Illinois. On his return trip he contracted cholera, and died in Terra Haute, Indiana. He was then sixty two years and ten days old. He died 7-24-1849 and was brought to Swedesboro and buried in the old Ebenezer Cemetery just off the Auburn Road.

Isaac Hurff was married by William Zane, Esq. 2-1-1810 to Elizabeth Jaggard, born 11-7-1791, died 9-20-1821, a daughter of Thomas and Sara (Dilks) Jaggard, of Deptford Township. Their children were:

When the migration of Salem and Gloucester County families to the 'Miami Country' of Ohio and on to Illinois took place Thomas Hurff and his brother George Hurff as young men went with these families to the new country as pioneers and homesteaded claims. It took approximately thirty days to go by loaded wagon to the valley of the 'Miami Country'. Thomas and George did not remain in Ohio but went on to Elmwood, Illinois where they located. It has been related that after Thomas had started his homestead and cleared his tract and built himself a home he came east on horse back and married Mary Ann Cheesman, his cousin, and that they went back on horseback for their honeymoon journey.

Thomas Hurff became a very successful farmer in this new country and took an active interest in the development of the territory.

Edgar Fisler Hurff had had an exciting and progressive career. His early education was in the elementary schools of the township and Swedesboro. He started out as a farmer but soon turned his activities toward commercial canneries. He built his first plant at Swedesboro, N. J., in 1913 where he put up all tomato products, asparagus, soups, pork and beans and potatoes, which became nationally known as "Hurff Products." This plant grew, expanded and was incorporated. In 1944 Edgar F. Hurff sold out to his son Allen T. Hurff and Oscar Hunt the manager, who in turn sold the plant in 1948 to the Del Monte Packing Co.

Edgar Hurff is also interested in growing a better grade of seed and has his farms where he experiments in plant growth of tomatoes. He is a Director of both the Woodbury Trust Co. and the Swedesboro Trust Co. He helped materially in the purchase of the present home of the Gloucester County Historical Society of which he is a life member. He also purchased the old Bank Building of Swedesboro and converted it into a modern Public Library for the town. Recently he and his wife renovated the famous Trinity Church at Swedesboro, inside and outside making it a place of beauty for its rich historic traditions. He was also instrumental in helping in the restoring of the Old Moravian Church below Swedesboro. In the summer they reside at Swedesboro where he attends to his many farming activities and in winter they make their home at St. Petersburg, Florida, where he is also interested in farms, produce and cannery methods. Both are members of Trinity P. E. Church.

UNCONNECTED DATA OF THE HURFF FAMILY RECORDS

From the Earley Family Association we have a partial Bible record copied and sent by Mrs. Frances R. Exley, of North Wales, Penna. in 1944. She states, "I have a Bible which belonged to my father and there are quite a few names entered. I will copy them off as near as I can make them out as they are faded:

"Sarah Earley daughter of William Hurff and Magdalen his wife was born (1791) the 22nd of April.

William Earley was born (1809) born of James Earley and Sarah his wife Feb. 4th.

Mary Earley daughter of James Earley and Sarah his wife born 9th day of June A. D. (1811).

Joel S. Earley son of James Earley and Sarah his wife was born the 3rd day of August A. D. (1813).

Sarah Ann Earley daughter of James and Sarah born 13th of November A. D. (1815).

Rose Ann Earley daughter of James and Sarah born 16th of April (1816).

John Earley son of James and Sarah born 18th August A. D. (1817).

Thomas Earley, son of James and Sarah born 2nd of December (1818).

Daniel Earley son of James & Sarah born 22nd A. D. of May (1820)."

There is another page but it is so torn I cannot understand it. My grandfather (Joel) and his wife (Rebecca) and my father (Samuel) and mother Virginia (Marville) are buried in Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro. My great grandfather gave a piece of ground to the Quakers for a burial ground and it is known as Solomons Grave Yard. Some of my relatives are buried there.

My father was Samuel Lippincott Earley. He passed away Dec. 12, 1914. He was the son of Joel Earley and Rebecca Lippincott, a daughter of Solomon Lippincott."

Who this William Hurff is we have no way of telling. He just possibly might be the child born Oct. 4, 1770, son of Conrad and Ann Hurff, for whom we have no name, but get the date from the slip of paper preserved in the family. On the other hand Conrad Hurff does not name any son William in his will of 1805. It leaves only a suggestion that he could have been a son and dead by the time Conrad made the will.

It is also suggested that he was the youngest child of Johan Balthaser and Catherina Harff, and was the fifth to share in the estate as stated in the proceedings as brought out in Court by Orcella.

In the enrollment of all males of Gloucester County between the ages of 18 and 45 years made in the year of 1793, under "all persons professing to bear arms in Greenwich Township", we find the name "William Hooff." (Notes on Old Gloucester County, Stewart, Vol. III p. 50.) That enlistment would take in all males born between the years 1748 and 1775. It is just probable he was a brother of Conrad and Orcella and had settled in lower Gloucester County.

In the marriage register of Jeffrey Clark, Esq. Justice of the Peace (Gloucester County Marriages, Craig, p. 249) we find "John Bakers married Jan. 23- 1797 to Magdlin Huff." Could this have been Magdalene Hurff? Either the widow of William or a daughter?

Other unconnected marriages include:

Mary Hurff to James T. Turner 2-1-1838 by James Long, Minister of the Gospel (File cards Room 202, also Gl. Co. Mar. Craig, p. 192).

Thompson Hurff, Greenwich Township and Sarah Galle, 2-4-1840 by Joseph C. Gise, Justice of the Peace. (File cards Room 202, also Glo. Co. Mar. Craig, p. 110).

Henry Y. Hurff, Woodbury and Anna Cloud on Dec. 29, 1886 at residence of bride's father in Woodbury, N. J. (newspaper files Room 202, date published 1-13-1887).

Lydia Hurff, Paulsboro, N. J. to John H. Brown of Philadelphia on 30th ulto by Rev. Wm. Newton. (date published in newspaper 1-7-1880). In another edition the name is given as Lydia Huff.

Some time ago a letter came to the Association asking for information on Charrie H. Dilks of Phila. married to Dr. James S. Myers at the residence of Benjamin Heritage by Rev. Joseph Castle, Oct. 26, 1865. Either the bride or the groom were descendants of one James Turner. Whether they are Hurff descendants we have not been able to prove.
